Judy and Dave need could still use help. If you would do one item for Baloo each month, it would help us greatly –
Some ideas for you to consider –

Biography – write a one page +/- biography of a person you select that exemplifies that month's emphasized point of the Scout Law.

Advancement – Choose a rank. Write a few hints and ideas for the Adventure to be discussed that month at the Roundtable. And, also, any that have a Character Compass pointing to that month's point of the Scout Law.

Point of the Scout Law – Look for items that help get across the meaning of the point of the Scout Law emphasized that month in Roundtable.

Have another idea? Let us know how you feel you could help us to make Baloo's Bugle more of what RT Commissioners, Cubmasters, and Den Leaders want.

Write us through the "Send Your Ideas to Baloo" link or directly – davethecommish@gmail.com and judyjohnsonbsa@yahoo.com

My.Scouting - a free, secure and private website for your Pack.
By Gary Moore
Pine Tree Council Alumni Relations Chair
Executive Board Member

Has your Pack thought of having a website as a communication tool for your Pack? If so, you may have discussed the many hurdles to face in implementing a website: the costs of a domain name, the continuing costs of website hosting, the cost of having someone build the site vs. the expertise, time and work to create a website yourself and the continuing effort needed to keep it up to date with fresh content, and, perhaps most important, the need for security to protect the privacy of the families of your Pack.

Many Packs start with an enthusiastic volunteer putting together an extensive Pack website only to have that volunteer transition to a Troop, drop out of the Pack or move to another community. The website turns from an asset to a liability with parents disappointed by outdated information.
Through the My.Scouting.org website, BSA has now provided Scouting Units with free, easy to use website tools to address the two primary needs of most units: an online calendar and the ability to post and manage announcements. Additionally, this is done in a secure password protected environment.

The My.Scouting Calendar and Announcement tools are the keys to managing content on your Pack's My.Scouting site. So, how do you log into and use these tools? It's really easy, but explaining how in an article like this is hard. I scientifically tested boredom factors between “Reading Written Instructions to use My.Scouting” VS. “Watching Paint Dry”. 100% of my sample (my wife) preferred Watching Paint Dry.

So I've created videos to show how to use many of the tools. The 8 1/2-minute video covering the Calendar and Announcement tools can be found at http://bit.ly/1W9LOmT. In these articles, we'll let the videos cover the mechanics of using the tools, and focus here on the strategy of using the tools.

The most important things about any calendar or announcement source are that it be up to date, accurate and complete. While these tools are quick and easy to use, consistency is key in making them useful. By default, only the Unit Key 3 have access to these tools; but the Organization Security Manager tool can grant any Committee Member Key 3 Delegate permissions to use the tools. If none of your Key 3 qualifies as a willing Geek, it's a great opportunity to bring some aspiring Geek parent on to your Committee as a new volunteer!

A note on the information you post: Consider using the 5W rule. Make sure information includes Who, What, Where (include an address), When and Why. Don’t assume “everybody knows.” That's really frustrating for new parents.

Once the information is online, the next challenge is to get people to use it. This means that all parents need to create log-in accounts as we discussed last month. Perhaps the resident Geek could set up a laptop at a Pack meeting to help those who need a nudge or help.

Next, promote the use of the site. Have a demonstration at a Pack Meeting. If you have access to a computer projector, consider using the site to review the Calendar and Announcements.

Make sure it is consistently referred to through the Pack Newsletter.

These suggestions pertain whether you choose to use the My.Scouting calendar and announcements, Scoutbook or a website. While it takes effort to maintain the information and encourage people to use it, you'll find that your Pack will benefit from having better communication. People will have a place to always find the latest information.

You should also realize, though, that this doesn’t negate the need for a Pack Newsletter. Online information is a consistent resource, but only for the people who come to it. The newsletter is more active in reaching out to everyone. The two together will work better than either alone.

Next month, we'll explore the My Dashboard tool. See you then!

Telling the Scouting Story with Social Media

Robert (Bob) L. Stocker
LCRS District Commissioner
Abraham Lincoln Council, BSA

Using social media to tell your unit's story is a great way to share all the fun and exciting things that your unit does. Social media also provides you with an awesome tool to recruit new scouting families into your unit.

There is an old saying about a picture being worth a 1,000 words. If that is the case, then if you upload 5 pictures to Facebook, you have just written a 5000-word document telling others how great your unit is.

Of course whenever you publish pictures publically, there are guidelines that need to be followed. Sites like Facebook, Twitter, Instagram, and others, all of guidelines regarding using their sites. Be sure to take the time to read these guidelines and follow them.
The Boy Scouts of America (BSA) has also put together some great guidelines and resources for using social media. In fact, BSA is very pro-active in encouraging units to use the different social media channels and they have created and are still creating lots of helpful information and materials that scouting units, districts, and councils can use in their "Social Marketing Plan." Below are some links and short summary of what information you will find at each link.

  - These are some key considerations you should think about and discuss with your unit before starting to share information on social media.
  - This link gives you the BSA's Social Media Guidelines.
  - This is the "BSA Social Media Playbook." Here you will find great information to help guide you in using social media to spread the great fun your unit is providing.

With all of these links you will find a lot more links inside them to help you along your social media journey.

Now that you have looked over these guidelines and have a plan on how to use social media; let's take a look at some of these social media channels and the materials' that BSA has put together to help you with your unit's social media usage.

Up this month, FACEBOOK Part 1.

With Facebook you can post to your own timeline and reach people who are also on Facebook, who have children that are scout age, and who may or may not be in scouting. By posting items on your Facebook timeline about your scout or your unit, you can speak to these people about the fun and excitement that your scout and family is having.

A unit, district, or council, can have a Facebook Page, and/or a Facebook group, where they can share and brag about their scout activities.

PERSONAL TIMELINES

Hopefully the scout families in your unit are already posting pictures of their scout(s)/scout events, like the one above, on their own timelines. However, if they aren’t, encourage them to do so. There is nothing better than parents bragging about their scouts. Word of mouth is the best advertising you can ask for.

FACEBOOK PAGES/GROUPS

Facebook pages/groups give your unit a great place to brag about the unit. An important guideline about Facebook pages and groups to remember is “To help ensure that all communication on social media channels remains positive and safe, these channels must be public” (emphasis added), and all communication on or through them must be public. This enables administrators to monitor all communication and help ensure there is no inappropriate communication between adult leaders and Scouts or between Scouts themselves. Therefore, no private channels (e.g., private Facebook groups or invite-only YouTube channels) are acceptable in helping to administer the Scouting program. Private channels and private communication put both the youth and you at risk. If you feel the information you seek to share via social media channels should not be shared in public, you should not share that information via social media.” ([http://scoutingwire.org/marketing-and-membership-hub/social-media/social-media-guidelines/ paragraph 5](http://scoutingwire.org/marketing-and-membership-hub/social-media/social-media-guidelines/ paragraph 5))

In addition to sharing what your unit has been up to, you can also “Share” information about scouting that is posted on other Scouting pages that your unit would find helpful and/or useful. This is a great way to share the scouting adventure with other scouting families, including your own, from other sources besides just your unit.

Remember this is Social Media and Facebook is just one Social Media Channel. By “socializing” on a social media channel with other scout families, units, districts, and councils, you are helping spread the excitement families are having in scouting.

Some great Facebook pages to follow are:

- Boy Scouts of America, National Facebook Page.
- Philmont Scout Ranch
- Boys Life Magazine
- U.S. Scouting Service Project (USSP)-Home of Baloo’s Bugle

Next month we will look at some examples of sharing information on Facebook.
CORE VALUES

The Cub Scout Core Values are the 12 Points of the Scout Law.

The Scout Law point highlighted this month is:

A Scout is LOYAL. The theme SCOUT SALUTE is used to help Cubs understand being LOYAL.

A SCOUT IS LOYAL

A Scout is true to his family, friends, Scout leaders, school, and nation.

HOW DOES “SCOUT SALUTE” RELATE TO THIS POINT OF THE SCOUT LAW?

A Scout is true to his family, friends, Scout leaders, school, and nation. Cub Scouts will show their loyalty during this meeting by participating in several activities such as honoring the American flag, creating a pack banner, and hearing about loyalty from a guest speaker or demonstrating loyalty to a team through a pack game.

Per our Founder, Lord Baden-Powell

![Lord Baden-Powell]

Note – The original Scout Law published in 1908 had nine points. In 1910, the BSA added Brave, Clean, and Reverent. In 1911 B-P added Clean to his original list.

A SCOUT IS LOYAL

Baden Powell said -

A SCOUT IS LOYAL to the King, and to his officers, and to his country, and to his employers. He must stick to them through thick and thin against anyone who is their enemy, or who even talks badly of them.
(Scouting For Boys, 1908)

Loyalty is a feature in a boy’s character that inspires boundless hope.
– Lord Robert Baden-Powell

LOYAL QUOTES

Quotations contain the wisdom of the ages, and are a great source of inspiration for Cubmaster’s minutes, material for an advancement ceremony or an insightful addition to a Pack Meeting program cover.

A boy can learn a lot from a dog: Obedience, LOYALTY and the importance of turning around three times before lying down.
Robert Benchley

Honesty and LOYALTY are key. If two people can be honest with each other about everything, that’s probably the biggest key to success. Taylor Lautner

Love is friendship that has caught fire. It is quiet understanding, mutual confidence, sharing and forgiving. It is LOYALTY through good and bad times. It settles for less than perfection and makes allowances for human weaknesses. Ann Landers

The foundation stones for a balanced success are honesty, character, integrity, faith, love and loyalty. Zig Ziglar

You give LOYALTY, you’ll get it back. You give love, you’ll get it back. Tommy Lasorda

LOYALTY to the country always. LOYALTY to the government when it deserves it. – Mark Twain

In this video, the “Believe It Live It” team profiles Frank Denius, the UT Longhorns No. 1 fan, and shows how he demonstrated loyalty with his service to his country in World War II. I look for these qualities and characteristics in people. Honesty is number one, respect, and absolutely the third would have to be LoyalTY. – Summer Altice
I’ll take fifty percent efficiency to get one hundred percent LoyalTY. – Samuel Goldwyn

All I want is good, honest, loyal friends. Aviv Nevo

I have a LoyalTY that runs in my bloodstream, when I lock into someone or something, you can’t get me away from it because I commit that thoroughly. That’s in friendship, that’s a deal, that’s a commitment. Don’t give me paper – I can get the same lawyer who drew it up to break it. But if you shake my hand, that’s for life. – Jerry Lewis
If put to the pinch, an ounce of LoyalTY is worth a pound of cleverness. – Elbert Hubbard
I place an enormous premium on LoyalTY. If someone betrays me, I can forgive them rationally, but emotionally I have found it impossible to do so. – Richard E. Grant
All men are Loyal, but their objects of allegiance are at best approximate. – John Barth
Where the battle rages, there the LoyalTY of the soldier is proved. – Martin Luther
A person who deserves my LoyalTY receives it. – Joyce Maynard
…it isn’t things and proximity, or even blood that holds us all together. What makes a family is love and LoyalTY. – Genevieve Dewey
LoyalTY and friendship, which is to me the same, created all the wealth that I’ve ever thought I’d have. – Ernie Banks
LoyalTY cannot be blueprinted. It cannot be produced on an assembly line. In fact, it cannot be manufactured at all, for its origin is the human heart — the center of self-respect and human dignity. It is a force which leaps into being only when conditions are exactly right for it — and it is a force very sensitive to betrayal. – Maurice Franks
You don’t earn LoyalTY in a day. You earn LoyalTY day-by-day. – Jeffrey Gitomer
Honesty and LoyalTY are key. If two people can be honest with each other about everything, that’s probably the biggest key to success. – Taylor Lautner
LoyalTY and devotion lead to bravery. Bravery leads to the spirit of self-sacrifice. The spirit of self-sacrifice creates trust in the power of love. – Morihei Ueshiba

My whole thing is LoyalTY. LoyalTY over royalty; word is bond. – Fetty Wap
Success is the result of perfection, hard work, learning from failure, LoyalTY, and persistence. – Colin Powell
Confidentiality is a virtue of the loyal, as LoyalTY is the virtue of faithfulness. Edwin Louis Cole
Loyal and efficient work in a great cause, even though it may not be immediately recognized, ultimately bears fruit. Jawaharlal Nehru
Friendship is held to be the severest test of character. It is easy, we think, to be Loyal to a family and clan, whose blood is in your own veins. Charles Eastman
I love dogs. They live in the moment and don’t care about anything except affection and food. They’re Loyal and happy. Humans are just too damn complicated. – David Duchovny
I am sustained by the tranquility of an upright and Loyal heart. Peter Stuyvesant
Where would you be without friends? The people to pick you up when you need lifting? We come from homes far from perfect, so you end up almost parent and sibling to your friends - your own chosen family. There’s nothing like a really loyal, dependable, good friend. Nothing. Jennifer Aniston
A man is a better citizen of the United States for being also a Loyal citizen of his state and of his city; for being Loyal to his family and to his profession or trade; for being Loyal to his college or his lodge. Louis D. Brandeis

THOUGHTFUL ITEMS

July Prayers
Thanks for Everyday Heroes

CS Roundtable Planning Guide

Great Spirit, we give you thanks for the everyday people who do heroic things-the firefighters who answer the call for help,
the police who work at keeping our cities safe,
the military personnel who keep our country safe, and
the Cub Scouts who unselfishly give service to others.

May we recognize all these everyday heroes and give them our thanks.  AMEN

Sam Houston Area Council
Thank You for Scouting and for the inspiration You gave our founders. Watch over our meeting and help us to keep Scouting alive forever. Amen.

The First Salute
Scouter Jim, Bountiful UT

If you can't get them to salute when they should salute and wear the clothes you tell them to wear, how are you going to get them to die for their country?

General George S. Patton

A co-worker of mine had a son graduate from the University and the ROTC program. He had two brothers in the military. One, a commissioned officer was able to swear his brother in as a new officer. The other, a Master Sergeant was the first soldier to give the new officer a salute. It was considered a great honor that the first salute he would receive as a Commissioned Officer was from his brother. I know from the culture of the family that the young man was once a Boy Scout and possibly an Eagle Scout. Most likely he was a Cub Scout before that.

That salute was not his first. He had given many salutes in his training no doubt. As a Boy Scout he would have given Salutes during flag ceremonies. But his first salute was no doubt as a Cub Scout. In a blue shirt with his arm proudly held up and two fingers placed to his forehead or against a Blue and Gold hat. This young officer’s first salute as an American in uniform was probably as a Cub Scout proudly wearing a blue shirt.

As leaders, it is well that we remember that our young Cub Scouts giving their first salutes in uniform as Americans with two fingers, will advance in Scouting and start giving three finger salutes as Americans.
Some will go on to serve their county and start to give four finger salutes, but their first salutes in uniform will always be as Cub Scouts with two finger against the hat. The Character Connection for November is Respect. There may be no better way to teach respect for the county, the flag, and those who serve in uniform to teach the importance of that first salute to the flag. Teach boys to wear their uniforms with pride and to be respectful of the flag and to give a crisp proper salute when they honor it.

SALUTE QUOTATIONS

Quotations contain the wisdom of the ages, and are a great source of inspiration for Cubmaster’s minutes, material for an advancement ceremony or an insightful

FLAG QUOTES

The whole inspiration of our life as a nation flows out from the waving folds of this banner. Author Unknown
If anyone, then, asks me the meaning of our flag, I say to him - it means just what Concord and Lexington meant; what Bunker Hill meant; which was, in short, the rising up of a valiant young people against an old tyranny to establish the most momentous doctrine that the world had ever known - the right of men to their own selves and to their liberties. Henry Ward Beecher
I swing before your eyes as a bright gleam of color, a symbol of yourself, the pictured suggestion of that big thing which makes this nation. My stars and my stripes are your dream and your labors. They are bright with cheer, brilliant with courage, firm with faith, because you have made them so out of your heart. For you are the makers of the flag and it is well that you glory in the making. Franklin Knight Lane
Cheers for the sailors that fought on the wave for it, Cheers for the soldiers that always were brave for it, Tears for the men that went down to the grave for it, Here comes the flag! Arthur Macy, The Flag
It is the flag just as much of the man who was naturalized yesterday as of the men whose people have been here many generations. Henry Cabot Lodge
That piece of red, white and blue bunting means five thousand years of struggle upwards. It is the full-grown flower of ages of fighting for liberty. It is the century plant of human hope in bloom. Alvin Owsley
We take the stars from heaven, the red from our mother country, separating it by white stripes, thus showing that we have separated from her, and the white stripes shall go down to posterity, representing our liberty. George Washington, attributed
A flag appears 'mid thunderous cheers,
The banner of the Western land.
The emblem of the brave and true
John Philip Sousa
The flag of the United States has not been created by rhetorical sentences in declarations of independence and in bills of rights. It has been created by the experience of a great people, and nothing is written upon it that has not been written by their life. It is the embodiment, not of a sentiment, but of a history. BIOGRAPHY

An Example of Loyalty - My Den Mother (and my Mother)

NOTE: I am not writing this boast about my Mom but to hopefully inspire you to find examples of loyalty in your families and talk about them to your Cubs. Personal stories are always more powerful than canned stories. CD

Ruth H. Lyons, 84, of Middletown, DE and formerly of Washington Township, Bergen County, NJ, passed away on Sunday, April 17, 2011 at Christiana Hospital in Newark, DE. Born on December 8, 1926 in Brooklyn, NY, she was the only child of the late Cord F. and Ottilie (Weiss) Kuhlmann.
Ruth graduated from W.C. Mepham High School in Bellmore, NY, Class of 1944. She enjoyed being a loyal spouse and homemaker and throughout her life loved being loyally involved in her two sons' activities. She was a long time Cub Scout Den Mother, Den Mother Coach, Roundtable Commissioner, and Cub Scout Trainer (I have her 1960's syllabus) with the Boy Scouts and a Little League team mother. She used to amaze my dad that wherever they went, she knew all these men. This was unusual in the 60's. She knew them all from roundtable.
She was loyal to my brother Bill and me, making sure we were confirmed at Zion Lutheran, whose confirmation class was known as "West Point of Lutheran (Mo. Synod) Confirmation classes, earned our Arrow of Light and Eagle Scout awards, and graduated from High School. And that we knew what was right and wrong. And always recognized we were different from each other. The old saying goes, Dave is right-handed and Billy is left-handed. After that, similarities end.
While living in New Jersey, she was an loyal devoted member of Zion Lutheran Church in Westwood, NJ. Following her move to Delaware, she became actively involved with Faith Lutheran Church in Bear, DE. She would manually type the Zion Times, then count spaces and manually justify it. And then retype the whole thing.

She was an active member of the Blue Knights Motorcycle Club New Jersey One with her husband, Bill. Following his death, she remained loyal to the organization continuing to volunteer at their events.

Ruth was an active member of the Jean Birch MOT Senior Center, where she and her husband started the first MOT Senior Center bowling league. As a member of the Senior Center she enjoyed teaching crocheting and in 2009 at the age of 82 was proud to have been the recipient of a blue ribbon at the Delaware State Fair for one of her prize crocheting pieces. She completed poster size crochet pieces of the Lord's Prayer, the 23rd Psalm, and the Last Supper and donated them to her and her sons' churches.

Ruth and her husband were avid travelers and together enjoyed visiting all 50 states and taking a cruise through the Panama Canal. She took pride that at age 67 she received the first motorized trike driver's license issued to a female in Delaware.

They (both parents) were loyal to their family. Bill and I are the only two of our cousins that know all the others. And they were generous with those in need. Helping as they could even though Dad was a police officer and they were not well paid at that time. Ruth completed a family tree of her husband's family starting with his parents and including all 9 of his siblings and their children and grandchildren. After his death, she maintained this and became the honorary matriarch of the family. All the cousins would let her know what changes were occurring. And they would visit when they could. (Being an only child, she had a desire to marry into a large family. She used to kid that any person she dated who had two or less siblings, somehow never got a second date). She attended all the high school and college graduations, Eagle ceremonies, and marriages of her grandchildren and any of the other Lyons family members to which she was invited. Billy and I drove her to many of these.

She is interred with her husband at Delaware Veterans Memorial Cemetery in Bear, DE.

CUB SCOUT IDEAS

Recruiting New Leaders

Excerpts from “Selecting Cub Scout Leadership,”

Be sure to read the whole pamphlet!!

The Key Three of your pack (The Chartered Organization Representative, the Committee Chair, and the Cubmaster) as well as all the members of the committee should be familiar with the steps of selecting and recruiting quality leaders for your Pack. The key to the process is found on the pamphlet, “Selecting Cub Scout Leadership,” No. 13-500.

The quality of any program, whether it’s a Scouting program or any other program, is directly related to the leadership. The stronger the leader, the stronger the program. Selection of leaders is the responsibility of the unit committee and chartered organization. This shown by the requirement to have the Committee Chair and the Chartered Organization Representative sign the new leader's application prior to submission to the local council. The Chartered Organization (as well as the Committee) may seek advice from the BSA local council about the process. Your Unit Commissioner should be actively helping you in this process.

How does a committee or an organization actually go about selecting and recruiting the best person?

Step 1 — Gather a Selection Committee
The head of the organization or COR appoints a selection committee. In the case of an existing unit, the unit committee is the logical starting place. However, parents and others may be invited to participate in the process.

Step 2 — List the Qualifications
After a committee is brought together, they then make a list of qualifications the candidate should possess. These traits should be listed on a flip chart for all to see.

Step 3 — List the Candidates
With the qualifications agreed upon, the committee then brainstorms a list of all possible candidates. All candidates mentioned are placed on the list and no committee member may disqualify candidates at this time. With the candidate list developed, the committee then numerically prioritizes the list.

Step 4 — Organization Approval
Since the leadership is the responsibility of the chartering organization, the institution head should provide his approval of the committee's selection.
Step 5 — Call on the Prospect

Now the committee selects a visitation team (usually three people) to visit the number one prospect on the list.

The committee should consist of someone knowledgeable about the Scouting program, someone representing the organization, and someone who has influence with the prospect.

Step 6 — Approach the Prospect

The interview should occur at the prospect's home. After a presentation is made to the prospect, the influential person should ask the prospect to serve. If the prospect is unable to serve, an alternate position should be offered.

If the number one prospect has declined, the number two prospect becomes the top prospect and the process begins again with the institution head.

When the prospect Says Yes; Now What?

Once the prospect has said yes, three things need to occur. First, an application is completed. Second, immediate training should occur. This may be Fast Start or some sort of personal coaching. This needs to occur within 48 hours of his commitment to do the job. Third, an announcement should be made to the organization, other leaders of the unit, and parents as to the prospect’s acceptance of the position.

Be sure to get your own copies of Selecting Cub Scout Leaders, No. 13-500; and Selecting Quality Leaders, No. 18-981.

Comment from Commissioner Dave –

My personal Rule #1 – Do NOT beg; you are offering this person a tremendous opportunity to help youth grow to succeed in our world. Approach them on a high plane. Keep the conversation upbeat.

When you say to someone that they are your last hope, you are telling them they were not your first choice. It is not a compliment.

Tell them they will not be alone. There are other leaders. There is an almost infinite amount of literature. Both written on paper and on the web. There is training for new leaders, Cub Scout Position Specific, and continuing training. Roundtables. Also, supplemental, Pow Wow, Danger Zone, Philmont Training Center, and more, there is advanced training, Wood Badge.

And you get to wear a snazzy uniform!!! 😊

Here are few interactive things to help you –

Leader Recruitment Skit
Circle Ten Council

The following is a skit from the 2002 Circle Ten Pow Wow book that can be used very effectively to recruit new leaders. You should modify as needed to better describe your unit and its needs. Commissioner Dave

Who Else...

Set Up: Have all the Cub Scouts and Webelos line up at the front of the room with a spotlight shining on them. Have the adults read the following parts from the back of the room.

Assistant CM: Boys are the nicest things that ever happened to me … those arrogant, self-assured little men-children who assume that all the great big world revolves around them.

Tiger Leader: Who else can carry half a worm, one crushed daisy, a piece of scrap metal, a three-day old apple core and two cents all in one pocket?

Den Leader: Who else can take a bath without getting their shoulders wet, and wash for dinner without turning on the faucet?

Den Leader: Who else can believe that right is right and wrong is wrong, and the good guy always wins in the end?

Webelos Leader: Who else can be a fireman, sword fighter, cowboy, deep-sea diver, all in the space of an hour, and then solemnly hold a funeral, complete with cross and box, for a shell off a turtle lost a month ago?

Webelos Leader: Who else can be a cutter without teeth, meaner without malice, kinder without embarrassment, sillier without foolishness, and clean without neatness?

Committee Chair: The world gains much in leaders and manpower when boys grow up … but it loses something too. That magic feeling that comes with being nine! The feel of dust between bare toes and the ability to lie quietly while time stands still, to watch a minnow in a brook.

Cubmaster: Me … I like Cub Scouts - the boys! They smile when I need a smile; they tease me when I'm somber; they keep me from taking myself too seriously. No, I don't wish that I were nine again. I just hope that somehow God will see to it that I always have someone nine years old in or near my house and heart.

All: Cub Scouting is the nicest thing that ever happened to ME!

At this point you begin your recruitment of new leaders and committee people building off the theme of that the adults enjoy Cub Scouting too.
ROUNDTABLE HINTS

Make Your Roundtable an EPIC Experience for Participants

Jeff McHoul, Assistant Council Commissioner – RTs Cradle of Liberty Council

Last month, we looked at some methods of "Refocusing your Roundtable" to better serve the needs of the Cub Scout Leaders of your District, this month the focus is on some strategies to continue that process, and can help with your planning for your 2016 - 2017 program year.

As we discussed before, the Cub Scout program has a built in attrition curve of Leaders, which means that each Roundtable may be "the first time" for any single participant of your District Roundtable, and you will only have one opportunity to make a positive first impression.

Leaders who attend Roundtable may all be at different points on the experience curve, but you will still need to be on your game with your program, and your Roundtable Commissioner staff will need to be working together as a high functioning team in order to make an impact.

One approach it to strive to make every Roundtable an EPIC experience:

★ E - Exceptional & Experiential
★ P - Personally & Program Relevant
★ I - Instructional & Inspiring
★ C - Concrete

Exceptional & Experiential
You should strive to present an exceptional and experience based program
• know your program level material
• prepare your presentation in advance and rehearse
• make your Roundtable a "hands-on" event - have the Leaders who attend take part in the program by participating in demonstration ceremonies, try any games presented, and work on any project presented

Personally & Program Relevant
Make the presentation personally and program level relevant to the Leaders who attend -
• plan for level specific break-out programs that address the specific needs of Den Leaders as well as Cubmasters and Committee members
• provide program ideas that are simple, directly support the program at every level, and are easy to reproduce and use at every level

Instructional & Inspiring
Structure your program so that it is an instructional experience, providing examples of the method of delivery, that motivates and inspires Leaders
• provide simple directions for games
• example scripts for ceremonies, songs, skits and cheers
• assemble and provide simple kits for each project that you present, and plan for sufficient quantities for all participants and any potential participants
• provide support and coaching to participants while working on projects and tasks to inspire them to take ideas back to their Dens and Packs

Concrete
Bring all of these components together at one place at one time, with a trained and motivated Roundtable team to deliver a concrete experience that provides Cub Scout Leaders with what they need to deliver a successful program at the Den and Pack level.

A Roundtable experience that is relevant to the level and responsibilities of the leaders who participate in your program; incorporating simple, easy to use hands-on instructions, and providing the inspiration to bring ideas back to their Packs and Dens; will provide an EPIC experience that will better serve the Cub Scout Leaders of your District; and ultimately build a stronger Cub Scout program.
You can download a copy at the Roundtable Support page of the Commissioner's part of National's website:

http://www.scouting.org/scoutsource/Commissioners/roundtable.aspx

This year's edition was prepped by the Cub Adventure Team who created the new Adventure Program.

Page 5 of the new Guide states - There is an exciting new look to the Cub Scout Roundtable this year. Some differences you may see in this guide are:

- The Cub Scout Roundtable training plans no longer provide pack meeting monthly themes or pack resource sheets. The pack meeting plans found online at Scouting.org are designed to help the Cubmaster plan terrific pack meetings and support den leaders with den pack assignments. You may continue to emphasize the pack meeting plans during your Roundtable as a helpful resource.

- You will now see Cub Scout interest topics that tie in with points of the Scout Law, and a month is suggested for delivery of each topic. These topics have been integrated into the roundtable program agendas—both the breakout and combined options—to add the element of supplemental training on material that the leaders have asked to learn more about.
DEN MEETING TOPICS

Remember – Boys want to be active!!
See, too, that they earn their awards
Never say GET. You get sick, you do not get awards – You earn awards. A little CD Philosophy).

Big Rock Ideas – suggestions for Big Rocks that fit Interest Topics or seasonal activity. If years are next to an item (e.g. 13-14) that suggested Big Rock is in that Roundtable Planning guide and on-line at http://www.scouting.org/scoutsource/Commissioners/roundtable.aspx

Fun Facts About Heroes
Alice, Golden Empire Council

If you need some help remembering heroes, this site lists heroes from various times – click on a specific name and you will be able to see a bio of that person, and click on values of that hero, their defining moments and stories of their failures. This is a Christian website, but with excellent information about the people they feature. The five values they identify as belonging to every hero are: they are fearless, they are applied (very committed), instructed (they have learned as much as they can), they are tireless, and they are humble. I love the fact that there is a link to “warts” - a great way to remind the boys that a true hero is not perfect, and has overcome failures. Lots of stories at: www.heroesofhistory.com.

Honoring American Heroes

Veteran’s Administration History

www.va.gov

1789 – A law was passed to give money to soldiers who fought in the American Revolutionary War ~ many had fought without pay during the war.

1861 – The Civil War broke out and Union veterans grew from 80,000 to 2 million!
1862 – President Lincoln started national cemeteries to honor the many Union dead from the Civil War.
1865 – President Lincoln gave his second inaugural speech. He asked Congress “to care for him who shall have borne the battle and for his widow, and his orphan.” This became VA’s motto.
1912 – The Sherwood Act gave pensions to veterans of the Mexican and Civil Wars when they turned 62, even if they were not sick or disabled.
1930 – President Hoover signed a bill creating the Veterans Administration (VA).
1940 – Congress created a law to help World War II veterans find jobs when they came home from war.

1944 – On June 22, President Roosevelt signed the GI Bill of Rights, which enabled veterans to go to college and buy a home without a down payment.
1946 – More hospitals were built to take care of veterans, including research facilities.

1973 – The Army gave 82 cemeteries to the Veterans Administration, which maintains the gravesites and provides honorable ceremony and maintenance.

1988 – Congress made the Secretary of the VA a cabinet post, allowing access to the President.

1998 – All eligible veterans could now enroll in VA’s health care system.

The Story behind the Motto of the VA

Lincoln’s words became the VA motto in 1959 with the words, “To care for him who shall have borne the battle and for his widow and orphan.” President Lincoln stated the government’s duty to care for those who are hurt or died defending our Country.

Here is a picture of the VA Seal.

★ The eagle represents the United States.
★ The circle of 5 stars above the eagle stands for the U.S. Army, Navy, Marine Corps, Air Force, and Coast Guard.
★ The flags in the eagle’s claws show America’s history from 13 colonies to 50 states.
★ The gold cord is a symbol for those who died while serving our country. The eagle is holding the cord to keep the memory of those veterans alive.

Hero True Or False

Alice, Golden Empire Council

Tell the boys that you are going to read some statements (Or you could give each boys his own list)

If the statement describes a hero, the boys can stand. If the statement does not fit the definition of what makes a hero, boys can remain seated. (Or have the boys circle the number in front of a correct statement)

However you use the statements, be sure and discuss them with the boys afterwards – let everyone share their opinion, and make sure that the boys know these are just opinions – and everyone can have their own ideas. See if you can arrive at a definition that everyone agrees to.

1. A hero is brave and strong.
2. A hero is caring and thoughtful.
3. A hero is selfish.
4. A hero is never frightened.
5. A hero wants to be rewarded for his or her actions.
6. A hero makes mistakes.
7. A hero is never silly.
8. A hero is dishonest.
9. A hero puts others before himself or herself.
10. A hero stands up for himself or herself.
11. A hero never gets angry.
12. A hero is always a popular person.
PACK MEETING THEMES AND PLANS

www.scouting.org

From National's Website for the new plans using the Core Values based on the Scout Law:

Here are a few thoughts to consider around these new pack meeting plans. First, there is a plan for each month that corresponds with a point of the Scout Law. In addition, each plan has a theme to help make the pack meeting even more fun! The plans do not have to be used in a specific order.

Tips for Utilizing the Plans

★ Pack meeting plans do not have to be done in any special order, but it is recommended that you include all of the points of the Scout Law each year. The pack planning meeting would be a good time to determine the order.

★ There are pack meeting plans for multiple years posted on the website. It is your pack's choice of which one to select from each point of the Scout Law for each year.

★ Pack meetings should not last longer than an hour. Adjust the plan to make it fit within the time. Research and experience tells us that Cub Scouts have a hard time sitting still for that long. Keep the meetings fun, active, and engaging.

★ If you are comfortable with a costume to fit the theme of the meeting, go for it!

★ Importantly, keep it simple and make it fun.

★ The following required adventures have a requirement that suggests or requires completion at a pack meeting. Please plan accordingly as part of your annual program planning process. Work with your den leaders to plan when these activities will take place.

Tiger

★ Tigers in the Wild, requirement 5. Participate in an outdoor pack meeting or pack campout campfire. Sing a song and act out a skit with your Tiger den as part of the program.

★ Games Tigers Play, requirement 3. Make up a new game, and play it with your family or members of your den or pack.

Wolf

★ Council Fire, requirement 6c. Create a den project from recyclables for a pack meeting.

Bear

★ Grin and Bear It, requirement 2. Working with the members of your den, organize a Cub Scout carnival and lead it at a special event.

★ Grin and Bear It, requirement 3. Help younger Cub Scouts take part in one of the events at the Cub Scout carnival.

Webelos

★ Stronger, Faster, Higher, requirement 5. With adult guidance, lead younger Scouts in a fitness game or games as a gathering activity for a pack or den meeting.

Arrow of Light

★ Building a Better World (if chosen), requirement 10b. Set up an exhibit at a pack meeting to share information about the World Friendship Fund.

As a personal note: I have read some of the plans and they are excellent and just as complete as the new Den Leader Books. The games, and other stuff are right there. Including costuming ideas for that added PIZAZZ!! If you do not use themes and do not add PIZAZZ you are not doing your best for your pack. GOOD JOB!!! From CD

Kim, the chair of the task force, says "I do want to stress that the focus is still the Core Value and the theme is just there as an enhancement. Pack meeting theme plans are specifically crafted to bring out the important points of the Core Value in a fun way."

A Scout is COURTEOUS. The theme S'MORE SUMMER FUN is used to help Cubs understand being COURTEOUS.

A SCOUT IS COURTEOUS

A Scout is courteous. A Scout is polite to everyone regardless of age or position. He knows that using good manners makes it easier for people to get along.

HOW DOES “S'MORE SUMMER FUN” RELATE TO THIS SCOUT LAW POINT?

Summertime is a great time to get outside and to have S’more Cub Scout Fun! This month, enjoy one of the last summer evenings at a pack campfire. Cub Scouts can experience fun activities before the campfire, a campfire full of songs, skits, awards and great memories. At the campfire, the Cub Scouts will treat each other with politeness because they know that is how they want to be treated.
August's Core Value, COURTEOUS, will use the theme, S'More Cub Scout Fun.

He has a strong belief that the youngest Scouts and parents need have a great start and learn about Scouting the right way. He is leading his second Lion Pride (Den) this year. 100% of his first one are still active as Tigers!!

When I first heard of the Lion Program, I wondered how I could relate to a five year old boy. I thought finally the BSA had crossed the line, and I will become a babysitter in a uniform.
And what I thought was more amazing, the “Lion Launch” coincided with the New Program Launch for Cub Scouting, and the Scout Oath and Scout Law would be replacing The Pack Law and Promise.

And there it was, page 22, in The Lion Parent and Leader Handbook, The Scout Law and Oath. It took me a while to digest this.

Then I saw the following: “Do not expect Lions to memorize the Scout Oath and Scout Law”

Wow, that was a relief.

I know many an adult Scouter who cannot state the Oath and Law.

So during our first meeting, it was time to give it a try. We practiced how to stand at attention. We practiced The Cub Scout Sign. (This is a very important form of riot control when practiced properly). We practiced The Cub Scout Salute. (This was more out of habit, being the Cub Master, you can’t help but say “Cub Salute!” while you say the Pledge.)

The Lions reacted brilliantly to all of these.

AND THEN A VERY DEEP BREATH

“ON MY HONOR …”

And I recited the Scout Oath.

Blank faces.

ANOTHER DEEP BREATH

“A SCOUT IS…”

And I recite the Scout Law.

I think I heard some grunting from the boys. It was in perfect timing with the rhythm at which I stated the twelve points of the Scout Law.

And I accepted the challenge.

I would think of ways to make the Oath and Law relevant to a five year old, because they ARE relevant to a five year old.

Our next meeting, I came armed and ready.

I WAS PREPARED

We stood at attention.
We Saluted.
We pledged.
We held up our sign.
I took a deep breath and proclaimed loudly:
REPEAT AFTER ME!
“On My Honor …”

And it was completely different.

I said it slowly, one sentence at a time.
And there they were, participating in those words that define us, and will now begin to define them.
The words and thoughts are easy to understand really.
Breaking it down on their level allows them to take ownership.
No blank faces this time.
No, they can't memorize it, but to participate and own the words is a monumental step.
So much for babysitting.
Then I took another deep breath..

REPEAT AFTER ME!
“A Scout is…”
The words came out.
No more grunting.
And these words can be understood by a five year old.
Because they are just like us.

They want to be good. To do what is right.
They want to be trustworthy.
They are naturally friendly.
They are always kind.
They work hard on being Obedient.
To further the understanding of the Scout Law we play a game.
We lay the twelve points of the scout law on the floor, and line the Lion Parents on each side forming a human Scout Law ladder.
We roll up our socks, (Yes we are barefoot for this. The Lions (five year old boys) think it is great), and the boys take turns rolling the socks on the floor over the ladder. The parents keep the sock in bounds by kicking it back in if it goes astray.
The sock will land on a point of a Scout Law and the leader discusses it with the Pride in Lion Terms.

For instance -
The sock lands on..
TRUSTWORTHY – Did you really brush your teeth when Mom and Dad told you to do so?

CLEAN – Do you clean up your toys when you are finished with them?

REVERENT – Do you say your prayers every night?

The Scout Law and Oath are relevant, and teachable to ALL Scouts.
We as leaders, cannot forget that all activities should be age appropriate to be effective.

Even the Law and Oath.
There is nothing a five year can't do or learn, if he is led properly.
Stay tuned next month for more talk on the Lion Program

The Chief Scout Executive on Lions

What We Know
According to a 2014 U.S. Census Bureau report, 57 percent of kids ages 6–17 participate in at least one after-school extracurricular activity. This means that by the time they are eligible for Tigers, more than half of them already are engaged in some type of athletic, artistic or other program.

Often, children become attached to lifelong activities at an early age — that is certainly a goal we would have, as we know the long-term benefits of Scouting involvement include strong asset development in the areas of character and leadership. However, we also know that when youth participate in numerous activities at an early age, and miss joining Scouting, they are unlikely to do so at adolescence.

What will be important to learn in the next few years, if the initial entry point works at the kindergarten-age level, is will this cause losses at a different age, or will the program keep the same retention all the way through to Boy Scouting?

What we learn from the pilot Lion format could also help us assess and create a smoother transition from Webelos into Boy Scouting. Too many parents now see a barrier or obstacle, rather than a smoother transition. You will often hear parents say, “We did Cub Scouting, now we’re not sure if we are going to do Boy Scouts.”

We do not have a seamless transition into Boy Scouts for a number of reasons. This pilot test will help us think through some of these issues.

We want to be sure that our Lion program delivers the right mix of character and leadership values and that we set the bar high. The program must be sustainable, we must have the right infrastructure to support it, and it needs to address in a meaningful way the needs of parents who want their kids to join Scouting at an earlier age.

You can rest assured that we will carefully evaluate our progress and keep you apprised of the results. Stay tuned for more.

Thanks for reading.

Mike

Organizing for Lions
From – New Birth of Freedom Council
For those packs that are thinking ahead about participating in the Lion Scouts program, having the right volunteers involved in delivering the Lion Scouts program will be important. Research shows that the most important person for a successful Scouting experience is a good leader. There are two new adult leader positions within the pack that are directly engaged in the delivery of the Lion Scouts program – a Lion Coordinator and a Lion Guide. Where do these positions fit into the current pack structure?
What is the Lion Coordinator’s job description?
- Is an experienced and successful den leader
- Understands den and pack operations within the overall structure of Cub Scouting
- Demonstrates excellent communication and organization skills (and will remain in at least monthly contact with the Lion dens)
- Participates as needed in the unit’s School Night with all new Lions and their parents
- Assists the Lion guide in hosting the first orientation meeting for all the individual Lion dens in their pack
- Serves as a coach and mentor for Lion Guide

The position description for the Lion Guide is as follows:
- Has previous successful experience as den leader
- Works directly with other den and pack leaders to ensure that the den is an active and successful part of the pack
- Plans and prepares for initial Lion den meeting and outings
- Mentors adult partners in the delivery of Lion den meetings
- Attends the pack leaders’ meeting
- Leads the den at the monthly outings and other pack activities
- Ensures the transition of Lion Scouts to Tigers at year-end
- Prepares the Lions for day camp at the end of the Lion year if appropriate
- Coordinates shared leadership among the Lion adult partners in the den
- Ensures that each Lion and his adult partner have the opportunity to be the host team, which plans and executes the den activities, and rotates responsibilities monthly

Selected FAQ's
Our council has run a kindergarten-age program for years. Why is this considered a “new” program now? Although a few councils have run locally-developed programs in the past, the National Lion Pilot launching now is the only approved BSA program for five-year-old kindergarten-age boys. The curriculum was developed by a team of experts, including representation from the fields of childhood development, education, and child psychology. Locally-developed content was reviewed by that team, and the best pieces woven into the new curriculum. That team worked to ensure that the organization’s high standards were met in delivering effective (age-appropriate) character and leadership programs. A small number of councils have tested the new curriculum over the past two years, and it is now ready to expand as a national pilot.

Why was the “Lion” name selected? I remember a Lion rank in Cub Scouting from years ago. Are you just bringing it back? Congratulations to all the Scouting historians who caught that! Yes. The Lion name has significance as a rank within Cub Scouting from the 1930’s-1960’s. As names were considered for this new, cutting-edge pilot program, honoring a name from our past made sense. It was a great way to give a nod to the organization’s rich history of delivering fun and exciting Scouting experiences to our nation’s youth. Indeed, it was a fun way to look back at our history while moving forward in a new and exciting way.

Isn’t this just the Tiger program re-branded? Will boys be doing the same activities two years in a row?

No. The Lion pilot program is designed to be an introduction to Cub Scouting. It is filled with fun, age-appropriate activities that will appeal to kindergarten-age boys. Although they share a focus on the traditional Scouting concepts of character development, leadership skills, personal fitness and citizenship, the activities are specific to the Lion program and are not duplicated within Cub Scouting. The activities will be fun and challenging in a way that is separate and apart from what boys will experience as they enter Tigers in 1st grade.

By adding a new rank to Cub Scouting, won’t boys and families “burn out” sooner and drop earlier than they normally would?

Chief Scout Executive, Mike Surbaugh, commented on this in this Chief’s Corner post in March. (Reprinted in this article) He wrote, the Lion pilot is, “designed to develop good, measurable data to determine program quality, parent involvement and its overall fit into the Scouting format.” The pilot will help determine whether a kindergarten program will benefit the development of five-year-old boys, and how it might effect their movement through BSA program areas long-term. As was written by many of you in posts and comments, though, fun and engaging program delivery may be more impactful on retention than a program’s overall length. This pilot will track that type of data and provide key learnings as we move forward.

We’re so excited about this program, when will I know if our council is approved to participate? How will we be told?

Interested councils may apply through their Area Director to become a pilot site. Scout Executives are aware of the application and notification processes. If interested, please contact your council office to inquire. The excitement continues to build!

How will Lions be structured? I’m thinking it might be hard to find volunteers to lead a group of boys that age.

Lions will be organized in dens of six to eight kindergarten-age boys. The dens will be mentored by Lion Guides (experienced Cub Scout adult leaders). Similar to the Tiger rank, each boy will be required to have an adult partner. With the guidance of the Lion Guide, each adult partner will take turns leading den meetings or activities. It is a shared leadership concept.

Will Lions be a part of the pack?

Yes. For units participating in the pilot, Lions are a part of the Cub Scout pack. It is important to note, however, that Lions will only be a part of the pack at an introductory level. The Lion program is designed to introduce five-year-old kindergarten-age boys to the fun and excitement of Scouting, but in ways that maintain appropriate expectations. Because of their age, development level, physical abilities, and stamina, it would be unrealistic to expect Lions to participate fully in pack activities. For example, Lion dens should not participate in pack fundraising, overnight camping or activities such as shooting sports. Those experiences, and others, are more appropriate for older boys as they move through Tiger, Wolf, Bear and beyond. Instead, keep the Lion dens focused on their exciting (and age-appropriate) adventures. Invite them to attend just a few (two to three) pack meetings throughout the year. Be sure to include them in special activities, but only if appropriate for kindergarteners. Remember, the Lion program is an introduction to the world of Scouting. Deliver the curriculum as written and keep it fun!

I can’t help but wonder if this is driven by low recruitment and a desire to get more fees. Is that the case?

Absolutely not! The development of a kindergarten program is driven by the desire to reach more of America’s youth with the purposeful outcomes only Scouting can provide. Oftentimes, families make “joining” decisions at about the kindergarten age. As they enter 1st Grade, schedules are often full and we’ve missed the opportunity. We know from the recent Tufts study that Scouting works! It has a tremendous impact on the lives of young people. The Lion program is a way to reach more of America’s families with the benefits of Scouting.

What are some positive results/outcomes you can share from councils that have already piloted Lions?

Pilot units have been extremely positive about their Lion program experience. A common theme emerging from those units has been their ability to identify engaged families for future leadership roles within the pack. Remember that the Lion program uses a shared leadership concept – introducing parents to the idea of leading just a few meetings or activities throughout the year. This gives the parents a chance to try their hand at leading activities and gives units a way to interact with those parents. In addition, pilot units showed very strong Tiger recruitment the following year. There will be much more data learned this fall as the pilot executes on a broader scale, but these have been early positive outcomes among initial units.
WEBELOS

Always an S  Webelos always ends with an S whether talking about one Webelos Scout or a den of Webelos. It is an acronym – WE’ll BE LOyal Scouts. As the CS RT Commissioner who mentored me says – "If you don’t have an S at the end – then there is nothing to which to be loyal."

WEBELOS-TO-SCOUT TRANSITION

Margo, Pacific Cascade Council

Transitioning a boy from Webelos Scouts into Boy Scouts is an important part of fulfilling the mission of BSA: preparing young people to make moral and ethical decisions by instilling into them the values of the Scout Oath and Law. Scouting is for the life of the boy. Every graduating Webelos Scout deserves the opportunity to continue his Scouting experience as a member of a Boy Scout troop. How can we make this transition go smoothly?

The purpose of the Webelos-to-Scout transition process is to get every Webelos Scout into Boy Scouting by giving every Webelos Scout a sampling of:
- Troop programs and events
- Troop leadership style
- Boy Scout advancement opportunities
- The fun and excitement of Boy Scouting

The Role of the Webelos Den Leader.
The leaders of the Webelos dens have a big job. They are responsible for the bulk of the transition into Boy Scouting. Over the course of the boys’ 4th and 5th grade years the Webelos leader will carefully guide the Webelos Scouts through the process.

The transition starts with the introduction of the Webelos Scouts to basic elements of Boy Scouting through the requirements of the Webelos rank and the Arrow of Light award. These include learning more about the Scout Oath and Law, as well as other basic elements of Boy Scouting such as the motto, slogan, handshake, and salute. The boys learn about the First Class rank of Boy Scouting and about how their uniform will be different when they are in Boy Scouting.

Conscientious Webelos den leaders who wishes their boys to have a smooth transition into Boy Scouting will enthusiastically describe the adventures to come in Boy Scouting and tell each boy that he is ready for the challenge.

Visit One Troop or Several?
As the boys go through the steps of the Arrow of Light badge, the time will come for the den leader to arrange visits with one or more troops. Let’s talk for a minute about the advantages and disadvantages of transitioning to one troop vs. several.

Transitioning all the boys to one Boy Scout troop is certainly easier for the leaders. Fewer troop visits are needed, and the transition can flow much more smoothly. Visiting with the same troop several times allows the Webelos Scouts to bond with boys in the troop more quickly. However, not every boy will find that he fits well in the troop that was chosen “for” him. And since he will likely be unaware of what other options are out there, if he is not happy in the troop, he will likely drop completely out of Boy Scouts.

In an ideal world, Webelos den leaders will arrange visits with several different troops. This can be difficult and time-consuming. But this method will allow the boys to see that they have options. Each Webelos Scout can choose the troop that he and his family feel is the best fit for him. And if he discovers that he is not happy in his chosen troop, he will know of other troops he could join.

If a Webelos den visits several troops, the Webelos den leader should help the boys compare and contrast the different troops. Each troop will have different strengths and focuses. Some troops love camping, others focus on service, etc. Troops can and should be visited both at regular meetings and at outdoor activities to get a more complete picture of how the troop functions.

The Cross-Over
Another duty of the Webelos den leader is to work with all of the troops involved in the transition, to plan the cross-over ceremony. All of the troops that will be receiving boys from the Webelos den into their troops should have a representative (Scoutmaster or Assistant Scoutmaster) at the cross-over ceremony.
How to Find Troops to Visit

A Webelos leader may wonder how to find troops to visit. Attending Roundtable is one way to meeting Scoutmasters and find troops that are open for visits. Another way would be to ask the unit commissioner for the pack to help find troops that are recruiting new boys into their troop. Other parents in the pack may have contacts with troops in the area.

Another way to learn about several troops at once is to attend events such as Webelos Woods or Webelos-ree, which often have troops run the activities, or a specific transition event, such as one offered in the Sunset Trail District of the Cascade Pacific Council called TAGS (Take a Giant Step).

Family Involvement in the Transition

It is important to involve the families in the transition to Boy Scouts. Webelos den leaders should meet with parents no later than the fall of their 5th-grade year to introduce them to the process that the boys will be undergoing as they earn their Arrow of Light and visit troops. Families should help the boy decide which troop to join. The decision can often be based not just on the “style” of the troop, but also on other more practical factors such as the troop’s meeting time and location, costs involved in the troop’s activities, fundraising activities, etc. Families might be more attracted to a bigger or smaller troop, or one that has a high percentage of Eagle ranks earned, or one that goes camping once a month.

The Role of the Boy Scout Troop

The leaders of a Boy Scout troop also have a role in the transition. Putting an Assistant Scoutmaster in charge of Cub Scout recruitment, including arranging for packs to visit the troop, will make the process more organized and purposeful. The ASM in charge of recruitment could make sure to contact local packs in the summer to arrange troop visits—before everyone is panicking trying to fit visits in! This ASM can also look for opportunities to invite Webelos dens to come camping with the troop, help with Pack or Webelos Den camping, take a contingent of Boy Scouts to Webelos Woods or Webelos-ree, and offer to help with Arrow of Light ceremonies and crossovers. Troops that have an organized and helpful approach to facilitating troop visits will certainly recruit more boys than a troop which recruits only as an afterthought.

Webelos-to-Scout Transition: What Makes It Easy?

- The Scouting Adventure adventure includes a great introduction to Boy Scouting.
- The requirements of the Scout rank are included in the Arrow of Light
- Adventures are set up similarly to merit badges
- Both have outdoor programs

Webelos-to-Scout Transition: What Makes It Hard?

We want Webelos to flow smoothly into Boy Scouting, yet they are structured as separate programs with very different ways of operating.

- We want Webelos to flow smoothly into Boy Scouting, yet we ask them to move into a new organization (a troop) that they may have no prior connection with.
- We ask them to do this at one of the worst possible times of year – mid-winter - a time that is not a "natural" transition time (like beginning of summer, end of summer, and end of calendar year).
- We make a really big deal out of completing -- finishing -- Cub Scouting and earning the Arrow of Light, essentially inviting Webelos and their families to think about leaving Scouting behind rather than starting up a whole new activity (Boy Scouting) as beginners.
- We ask Den Leaders, who may know nothing at all about Boy Scouting except what is in the Webelos Book, to teach Webelos about Boy Scouting and get them excited about it.
- We ask Den Leaders, who may be burned out after 4 1/2 years, to be excited about starting all over again with Boy Scouting.
- We put the burden on Den Leaders to arrange visits to troops because visits are part of the Arrow of Light requirements.

Results of A Good WTS Transition

Webelos-to-Scout transition can be hard at times, but proper planning and preparation will make the process smoother. A good Webelos-to-Scout transition process will leave the pack with a strong feeling of success, and will leave the boy well-prepared and enthusiastic, ready to start his new adventure in Boy Scouts.
TURNING YOUR WEBELOS INTO BOY SCOUTS

_Baltimore Area Council_

1. Start early with your program for the first year boys to get all of them to Arrow of Light (A.O.L.).
2. Do not wait for September to start new Webelos den into active program.
3. Get together during the summer months to do some special activities. The Aquanaut Adventure can be completed right away.
4. Pull the den together during the summer by doing small and simple service projects for school, church, or community.
5. While doing Adventures with boys add those 'joining Boy Scouts' requirements. Get boys into the outdoors soon as they become Webelos.
6. Do as many Adventures outside as possible. Plan around a patio, yard, Garage, Park, Pool, a business or any other place.
7. Have special Visitors over for den meetings to talk about specific skill activities.
8. Spend sufficient time with each Adventure. Usually, two to four weeks.
9. Try to get all the boys in the den to the Webelos badge at the same time. Make it special for them at their recognition pack meeting.
10. Attend the monthly Roundtable meetings and 'Cub Leader Pow-Wow (or University)' to get ideas for completing Adventures and other help.
11. Once into the program start planning ahead, up to six months, those activities you want to do. Work your program into your schedule, the seasons, the weather, the Boy Scout Troop and sudden changes. Always have a back-up plan.
12. If a leader feels uncomfortable about doing an activity with the boys, get help: do not pass up the opportunity to learn.
13. Give boys a sample of the skills, activities, requirements that the Boy Scouts do.
14. Start early to get boys ready for camping. Have a backyard Day Camp or overnighter.
15. Look for Troops in your area that the boys may go to and visit. Go Camping with them. Have skills demonstrations with them.
16. Take boys on meaningful tours and trips (more special than their earlier Cub outings).
17. Now is the time to take boys out for hikes - in neighborhood, park, construction site, open fields.
18. Know what your boys want and give them all they can take. Every Adventure if they so desire.
19. Realize that the second year for Webelos is a short one. Know when to graduate them ahead of time.
20. Plan well ahead for the Arrow of Light and get an O.A. (Order of the Arrow) ceremony or other special ceremony scheduled. Contact Troops for ideas and help.
21. Be sure to fulfill all the requirements for Arrow of Light and joining Boy Scouts.
22. Get parents involved, even more than before, so they will help carry boys into Boy Scouts.
23. Visit more than one Troop in your area - early. Have parents go along. Also to get a better understanding of the Boy Scout Program.
24. Having a Boy Scout Handbook to work from, refer to, show boys, get ideas from and get them prepared with is a great training aid.
25. Know that boys are lost from Boy Scouting during the 1st year if not properly prepared.
26. It is very important that boys experience camping before they join the Boy Scouts to make it more comfortable for them.
27. Remember that a parent must be with a boy on campouts as Webelos, but let the boys live the experience themselves.
28. Having and using a trained 'Den Chief' will add to the program and help leaders, too. The Webelos will enjoy having an older boy there.
29. Use as many assistant leaders and parents as possible to help with any and all hands-on skills activities. A good safety factor, too.
30. Get outside experienced help to reinforce to the boys the 'Whittling Chit' Requirements.
31. Boys should start working towards proper uniforming for the Boy Scouts. Proper insignia placement is important.
32. Using a den doodle provides tracking and incentive to get them all into Boy Scouts.
33. Work with the Webelos at the beginning of their second year, a little at a time, so that they know the Boy Scout Joining Requirements.
34. Have them start working towards the Boy Scout Tenderfoot physical fitness requirements. This is the hardest requirement to fulfill.
35. Get boys started in making out duty rosters and menus for campouts soon. They will have to do these on their own as Boy Scouts.

36. Get all of your boys to Webelos Summer Camp after their first year. This will be their best Outdoor experience as a Webelos den.

37. Games, Skits, Songs, Stories, Competition with each other and a den flag are very important parts of the Webelos Program.

38. Letting the boys pick a patrol name, with a patch, instead of a den number will bring the boys closer to the Boy Scout Program.

39. The most important part of the Webelos Program is having well trained leaders to pass on all those new skills to the Webelos.

LEAD A SONG.

Bill Smith, the Roundtable Guy

*I would guess that there are few things most Cub Scout leaders fear more than having to get up at a pack meeting and.....

LEAD A SONG.

Unless you are an experienced choir leader or perhaps the concertmaster of your local symphony orchestra, the thought of standing in front of friends and neighbors and getting them to sing some silly song probably fills you with dread.

Join the club.

I (Bill Smith) had watched in horror at Roundtables and such, when leaders would take us through renditions of B-I-N-G-O or Cub Scout Spirit and I realized that we were expected to do something similar. Not me! I am a cool urbane dude and this just doesn’t fit the image.

It took a trip to Philmont Training Center to change my mind. The staff there convinced me that pack meetings should be fun – as Sean Scott told us:

The cool, urbane image may be OK around the water cooler at work but is not going to make it in a Cub Scout setting. Singing, they emphasized, was a great method for injecting fun and excitement into the program. So I bit the bullet and chose a song for my next pack meeting. We tried Throw it Out the Window.

Each den chose a nursery rhyme and we all came in on the choruses. To my utter amazement it worked. The kids, Cubs and siblings, loved it and parents even commented that the pack meetings had improved. If I could do it, so can you!

If songs are not a regular part of every pack meeting, then you may be missing an important element that could make your meetings more enjoyable and more effective. Songs are the great mood setters. I can’t think a better way to get a bunch of Cub Scouts smiling and clapping than a few verses of Alice the Camel or My Bonnie. Is it possible to have a good campfire without songs? Not in my wildest imagination!
Why Do We Sing?
Most people love to sing, and Cub Scouts are no exception. Singing builds den and pack spirit and enthusiasm. Singing gives boys a chance to let off steam. Singing is fun! Use a song or two to set the mood for your meetings. Have a few songs ready to use as “fillers” during transition times of your meetings. Use songs to get the audience moving and get rid of those wiggles. Use songs to quiet and calm the group when it’s time to go. If you’re not using songs in your program, you’re missing out on the power of music!

How to Get Started
Try leading cheers and audience participation stories. A simple cheer like: I’ll throw the neckerchief up in the air and everyone yell until it comes down. These activities promote an atmosphere where the boys and even the parents become used to following your lead. It then becomes an easy step to try in a simple song like I Like Bananas, Coconuts and Grapes.

Pick easy songs with lots of repetition and simple tunes. Good Cub Scout songs rarely make much sense. I personally do not like those songs that attempt to introduce the theme with complicated lyrics. They are difficult to teach and they detract from the main purpose of songs in Cub Scouting. Songs should be uproarious fun. As you develop more confidence you can also try the quieter, closing or patriotic songs. These can be great mood setters but it’s usually best to start with the fun, silly songs.

Getting Cubs (or any group) to sing takes mostly enthusiasm and a dose of confidence. Choose a song that you like and feel confident about. Never apologize or dismiss the song or your leadership. Introduce it with enthusiasm -

It’s a great fun song and we’re going to really blast it out!
It’s important to name the song, make sure they know the tune and the words and tell them that they should sing loud.

You might want to have the words printed out on large poster boards or butcher paper rather than on song sheets. Songs with lots of repetition or familiar words work well. If you have musical accompaniment, like a guitar or piano, that will make it so much the better. I am intrigued by some of these new electronic MP3 gadgets that allow one to download music files and play them back to teach the tunes. I can barely carry a tune so I need all the help I can get.

It helps to have everyone stand for singing. When they are ready, start them off with your version of a downbeat and keep a lively time by waving your arms. Enthusiasm beats musical ability here so have lots of fun while you’re doing it. Ed Hesser, one of my Wood Badge instructors, taught us to wear orange gloves to lead songs. It works.

Still afraid?
Wear a pair of brightly colored gloves (e.g. orange). (Or give a pair to a new (afraid) song leader. This will reduce your/their anxiety. Tell the audience to follow the gloves. This takes the focus off the song leader. I have done this many times with new song leaders. It works great and pretty soon they forget the gloves!!

How to Lead a Song
❖ Choose It. As the leader you must choose the song that the group will sing. You want to be certain that all songs chosen support the values and ideals of Cub Scouting. You will also want to choose a song that fits the program. Fast action songs get the program off to a brisk start. Patriotic songs add a note of dignity to the program. At the end of the program, slower closing songs can leave every one calm and thoughtful.
❖ Know It. The song leader should know the song—both words and tune—before leading it. Learn the song, then practice before the meeting by teaching the song to your family or to the pack committee members at the monthly pack planning meeting.
❖ Teach It. Start by telling your audience the name of the song. Unless you are certain that everyone in the group knows the song, you need to teach both the words and the tune. You may wish to provide copies of the words. Use songbooks, reproduced song sheets, or words on a large sheet of paper or overhead projector.
❖ Sing It. Sing the song through once, either alone or with a small group who already know it. Let the singers try a verse at a time, slowly at first. When they master it, pick up speed.
❖ Pitch It. Set the pitch by singing the first word of the song loudly so that everyone starts out on the same key. Musical accompaniment helps—a keyboard, piano, accordion, guitar, or harmonica are all good because they can play harmony not just single melody notes.
Lead It. Be active in your song leading. Use simple arm motions to lead the song so that everyone is singing together.

- Start the singing with a slight upward motion and then a decisive downward motion (a downbeat). Begin singing yourself on the downbeat. Don’t worry if some don’t start with the first note—they’ll join in quickly.
- Beat time with a simple up-and-down motion of the arm, but make it definite and brisk. You’re in command.
- Control volume by raising your hands for loudness and lowering them for softness.
- Move around a little. Inject a little pep and personality. Keep smiling.
- Smile at your group. Relax. Radiate confidence and enthusiasm, even if you don’t feel particularly confident or enthusiastic. Morale catches.

Stop It. When the group has sung it a time or two, stop—don’t make it a music lesson. If the song isn’t going well, or it was pitched wrong at the beginning, stop the song and start over.

The Cub Scout Song Book

The CS Song Book is a great source of songs. I have heard that a new edition is in the works but there is nothing wrong with current book. There are more and more Internet sites with good Scouting songs. Many now have music files as well as the lyrics.

Your boys will undoubtedly come back from camp this summer with some great songs they picked up from the staff there. Use a few of these as regular fare for your pack meetings and campouts.

Fun Facts About Lollipops

_Alice, Golden Empire Council_

Being served on a stick may be a new thing for some foods like pickles and cake, but for the lollipop it's been that way the beginning.

Here are 10 fabulous facts about the classic candy.

1. The world's largest lollipop was made in 2012. The confectioner behind the job was See's Candies of California, and their creation weighed over 7 thousand pounds. It was chocolate-flavored.

2. The first high-production machine was invented in 1908. A manufacturer in a Racine, Wisconsin was asked to build something that could make a lot of lollipops in a short time. They came up with one that could push out 40 in a single minute.

3. The term lollipop used to mean other things. The first known use was in the mid 1780s. Charles Dickens used it to refer to stick-less candies. At another time it a different place it's what they called sweetmeat on a stick.

4. The Chupa Chup label was designed by Salvador Dali. He and the guy who invented the popular candies were friends. It's reported that there was also money involved, which Dali was rumored to not typically turn down.

5. Dum Dum's mystery flavor is a pretty simple recipe. They're created as one flavor batch is running out and the next one is beginning, whatever those two may be.
Some are made for adults. The candy company Lollyphile produces a variety of beer flavored ones. For fans of the grape, they also offer merlot, chardonnay, and cabernet.

On request they can come laden with viruses. In 2011 it was reported that moms across the country were ordering lollipops that had been licked by kids infected with chicken pox. The goal was to introduce the virus to their own children in hopes of building immunity and avoiding vaccinations.

George Smith was the first to really run with the idea. He saw a West Haven, Connecticut sweets maker put a caramel and chocolate confection on a stick and an idea came to him. He began to manufacture a hard candy version and named it the Lolly Pop.

It's easier than ever to sneak a lollipop into class. A team of designers created a pencil/candy hybrid. Instead of a boring, flavorless eraser the writing tool is topped with a delicious twist of candy.

There's a line specifically for insect lovers. Hotlix, a snack manufacturer that specializes in earther nibbles, sells a variety of lollipops that contain bugs. Options include scorpions, ants, worms and crickets. Which lollipop flavor is your favorite?

Lollipop History

The first incarnation of the lollipop was probably created by cave people thousands of years ago who collected honey from beehives with a stick. Not wanting to waste the sweet nectar, they most likely licked the stick, thus inventing the world’s first lollipop. Good for them and us. Archaeologists believe the ancient Arabs, Chinese, and Egyptians all produced fruit and nut confections that they candied in honey for preservation, and inserted sticks into to make easier to eat.

If the 17th Century English version doesn’t count as the first modern lollipop, you could look to the Civil War era for another early forerunner, when hard candy was put on the tips of pencils for children. The early 20th Century was the era of automation, which is when the birth of the lollipop as we now know it begins in earnest, but there are still discrepancies as to who is the true creator.

In the 17th Century, as sugar became more plentiful, the English enjoyed boiled sugar candy treats and inserted sticks into them to make them easier to eat, too. Linguists say the term ‘lolly pop’ literally means ‘tongue slap’ since the word for ‘tongue’ is ‘lolly’ in Northern England and ‘pop’ means ‘slap.’ London street vendors may have coined this term as they peddled the treat, which was soft rather than hard, but still considered a possible forerunner to the modern lollipop.

As early as 1905, the owner of the McAviney Candy Company may have stumbled upon the lollipop by accident. The company made boiled hard candies that were stirred with a stick, and at day's end, the owner brought the sticks covered with the candy home for his kids to enjoy. It wasn't until 1908 that he began to market these "used candy sticks."

Also in 1908, in Racine, Wisconsin, the first automated lollipop production was brought about by the Racine Confectionary Machine Company that introduced a machine that put hard candy on the end of a stick at the rate of 2,400 sticks per hour. Owners of the company believed that they could produce enough in a single week to supply the nation for an entire year.

In approximately 1912, Russian immigrant Samuel Born invented a machine that inserted sticks into candy. The machine was called the Born Sucker Machine and the City of San Francisco considered it so innovative that they awarded him the keys to the city in 1916. George Smith, owner of a confectionary company called the Bradley Smith Company, took credit for inventing the modern version of the lollipop which he began making in 1908, and in 1931, he trademarked the term ‘lollipop,” borrowing the name from a famous race horse named Lolly Pop, which is when the term lollipop finally connects back to the 17th Century phrase (‘tongue slap,’ remember?).

As you can see, the development of the lollipop took its time and there is some competition for the title “creator of the lollipop,” but regardless, it’s here to stay and it’s currently one of the most popular candies in existence. Modern companies can produce up to 3,000,000 per day, which hardly satisfies the nation's sweet tooth.

Lollipops now come in all shapes and sizes, some companies offer over a 100 varieties. Let's end with: "When you don’t know what else to do, put a stick in it."

THEME PACK AND DEN ACTIVITIES

Alice, Golden Empire Council

✓ Explore different kinds of heroes – include Strategic Air Command, DART, Civil Air Patrol, CERT (Community Emergency Response Team), National Guard, Firemen and Policemen, Regular Military, Teachers, Doctors.

✓ Have each scout or family make a list of some everyday heroes – make a list of categories and have each person or team fill in a real name that fits the category. Some ideas are: volunteer firefighters, musicians or artists, parents that volunteer at school, people that bake for a benefit sale, people that help the elderly, people that plan celebrations that everyone can enjoy, first responders, people who teach Sunday School, Scout leaders, kids who help younger kids learn something new (like Venturing Scouts or the Den Chief), people who help their neighbors, people who coach sports for kids.

✓ If you have a school garden or community garden in your area, invite a volunteer to share how it got started, how it helps families in the community. Learn about school gardens in your communities and the “heroes” who keep them going. Go to www.kidsgardening.com/school/searchform.asp for information and stories, as well as links to other great project ideas and garden projects in specific areas.

✓ Talk to a local librarian – they may need volunteers, can connect you with community organizations, speakers, or sometimes even sponsor programs such as Adult Literacy.

✓ Check with Habitat for Humanity, Christmas in April, Humanitarian Aid Projects or local Senior Gleaners for service project ideas or to find some wonderful local heroes.

✓ If there is a teacher’s resource center in your area, invite a volunteer to share how it got started, how it helps families in the community. Learn about school gardens in your communities and the “heroes” who keep them going. Go to www.kidsgardening.com/school/searchform.asp for information and stories, as well as links to other great project ideas and garden projects in specific areas.

✓ Check with your local Volunteer Center – every city or county has one. They can connect you with volunteer opportunities, and sometimes have programs to honor volunteers – an easy way to find someone to honor or come visit your den or pack!

✓ Ask families in your pack to share stories about everyday heroes – ways that people can help their communities – examples of one-person projects that make a difference. Feature these stories at your pack meeting.

✓ Challenge every member of your den or pack to Pay it Forward!

✓ Invite a speaker to talk about Veteran’s Day or heroes – see the VA website information

✓ To locate a National Cemetery go to: http://www.cem.va.gov.

✓ Add to the total at BSA Good Turn for America – enter hours of service at www.goodturnforamerica.org.

✓ Check out the “Make a Difference Day” stories from Parade magazine – you might find the perfect one-person or den service project.

✓ Work on the scouting requirements that prepare scouts to be a hero – first aid training, plumbing, fix it, carpentry skills – boys or families can be a “hero” by helping an elderly neighbor or relative who can’t afford regular maintenance – and in the future, as men with these skills, today’s scouts will be a hero to their own families.

✓ Obtain or print out a map of the local community – (Thomas Bros. maps also show schools, fire stations, community centers) – talk about the places where help is available and where good citizenship is practiced.

✓ Take a Thomas Bros. map of the local neighborhood, mount on cardboard, laminate, and cut into puzzle pieces to use for a family or den game to learn about community resources.

✓ Contact a local VFW or local cemeteries to get flags for putting out on graves of Veteran’s – this is only done in the older cemeteries – in most National cemeteries, they instead have a Memorial Avenue of full-size flags donated by families – these flags are ones that were used to cover veteran or military caskets. They are flown on every holiday and whenever there is a funeral for active military. You can arrange to come and raise these flags as a way to honor veterans.

✓ Check to see if there are Independence Day Parades in your area and register to participate in uniform.

✓ Visit a museum and look for heroes – people who have done something heroic or started a service project, saved a building from demolition, worked with youth in the community, overcome challenges.

✓ Visit with older people, especially family members, and learn about them, their work, their service, how they spent their time – identify ways that they were heroes, overcame challenges, helped others get educated, or made a difference in their communities.

✓ Choose a service project to honor heroes – one idea is Operation Military Kids, which provides hero packs to children who are sacrificing time with their deployed parents – See web sites.
✓ Invite a CERT (Community Emergency Response Team) member to come and share information with your den or pack families.

✓ Give local Venturing Scouts the opportunity to teach skills to your scouts – Venturing crews can fulfill their requirements and be a “hero” to your Cubs/Webelos.

✓ Check out the book The Children’s Book of Heroes by William Bennett and read the story "How the Animals Got Sunlight.” Then talk about who the hero is, why and what they did. Or choose one of the other hero stories in the book – you might even use a story as the plot of a skit for the pack meeting!

✓ Brainstorm with your den about what a hero is - what qualities does a hero have? Encourage boys to think about real people, not just super heroes. Have the boys make special thank you cards for the people they choose as heroes.

✓ Put out a den or pack “newspaper” with stories about people they have identified as heroes. If any of the boys like to do photography or art, you could add pictures! Print out copies and distribute to pack families and your chartered organization. You might even want to send a note to parents so they can help their sons with the project.

✓ Suggest that families talk about heroes in their family history – share stories about how ancestors were everyday heroes.

✓ Choose some everyday heroes that the boys know – such as teachers, police or fire department members, the cubmaster – invite them to come to the pack meeting and give each of them a simple award – perhaps a certificate or even a picture the boys have made to present to them.

✓ Challenge the boys to use their photography talent to enter the 2009 U.S. and Canada International Photography Contest for Kids – they could choose a subject that shows a hero in action, or even a photo that focuses on being an eco hero by featuring a favorite animal. See details at: http://kids.nationalgeographic.com/contests/Photos

✓ Visit a nearby fire or police station, National Guard, Coast Guard or other military installation and see heroes in action. My pack visited a local Coast Guard Station – in land-locked Sacramento – and had a wonderful time touring a plan and watching a video, so check out your local resources! Alice

✓ As a whole pack, including families, write Letters to the Troops – details under Theme Related. This can also be a great lesson in how to write a caring letter – more details and a template on the website.

- Invite your local fire department to a Pack meeting. Fire Safety Awareness month is an opportune time for this Pack meeting. Most fire departments have short programs developed, which they will share with your Scouts. Be sure to "salute" them while they are there.
- Invite your local police department to a Den or Pack meeting. The police have many different programs, such as a canine dog demonstration, the rescue helicopter, finger printing demonstration, and “Stay Safe” (self-defense) program. Be sure to "salute" them while they are there.
- Invite your local paramedics and or flight nurse crew to a Pack Meeting. The first aid requirement for all levels of Cub Scouting can be fulfilled. Be sure to "salute" them while they are there.
- Plan an outing for your Den to your local fire or police department. Bring a card or something the Cubs have made as a Thank You and "salute" them while you are there.
- Plan an outing for your Den or Pack to an animal rescue center or humane society because people we salute need not wear uniforms. Bring a card or something the Cubs have made as a Thank You and "salute" them while you are there.

Letters to the Troops
Alice, Golden Empire Council

Write letters to our Troops – you can either use the template on http://www.flagsacrossthenation.org/about-flags/letters-to-the-troops/, or you can make up your own – scouts or siblings can then color in the flag, write a letter below to the troops, put your name and age on the back, and then mail to Flags Across the Nation, 9426 Duckhorn Dr., Charlotte, N.C. 28277.

For younger siblings, or those who don’t feel comfortable writing a letter, click on projects at the website – they have downloadable coloring pages that can be done and also are sent to troops! This is a great project to share with other groups as well!

2010 Freedom Art Contest – Challenge the scouts to enter a piece of patriotic art in support of Letters to our Troops. Every child who enters will receive an acknowledgement gift. For details go to: www.flagsacrossthenation.org/about-flags

Note on Word Searches, Word Games, Mazes and such – In order to make these items fit in the two column format of Baloo’s Bugle they are shrunk to a width of about 3 inches. Your Cubs probably need bigger pictures. You can get these by copying and pasting the picture from the Word version or clipping the picture in the Adobe (.pdf) version and then enlarging to page width. CD

Make up stickies for people’s backs with names of famous pairs. (e.g. – Abbott on one, Costello on another. Or Aldrin on one, Armstrong on another.). As each person enters the room, he has a stickie pinned to his back. The object of the game is to learn the identity of the person on your back and then find his partner. Each player is allowed to ask one or two (or more, you set limit) yes or no question(s) of each other player. At the same time, the two people introduce themselves (their real names) and shake hands. Once you find your identify, find your partner by reading tag.

We Salute You
Greater St. Louis Area Council

You will need 6 Cub Scouts. Have each Cub make up a card with a picture illustrating what the words on his card say or anything he wants related to the theme. Make sure the words are in LARGE print.

Cub # 1: Some who we salute are obvious, local heroes who like a police officer risks life to protect us from violence or the fireman who pulls people out of burning buildings.

Cub # 2: Other we salute are the ambulance drivers, paramedics, doctors and nurses who save lives everyday.

Cub # 3: Some people around us seem like regular people, but they we salute them because they were soldiers in the military and served our country to keep us free.

Cub # 4: A hero is someone who does the right thing even when they are afraid of failure. They do it because it should be done. And we salute them.

Cub # 5: Some who should be saluted are harder to spot, but they are still there. These include blood donors, teachers who spend their time and energy helping kids, and kids who say “No” to drugs.

Cub # 6: Heroes are all around us. Please join in saluting all the heroes of our country, by repeating with me the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag.

Heroes Flag Ceremony
Great Salt Lake Council

Setting: The Colors advance in the normal manner. A spotlight is shined on the flag while the narrator speaks.

Narrator (Hidden): Heroes, with help from God, have kept me flying in the face of threat and challenge to the democratic way of life I represent. I symbolize all the achievements of a great nation founded for freedom. I am the last hope of peace on earth. I am the American Flag.

Cubmaster: Audience arise and join me in the Pledge of Allegiance to be followed by singing "God Bless America.”
Scouting History Opening Ceremony
Great Salt Lake Council

Cubmaster: Robert Baden-Powell, a British hero, started Scouting in England. He developed Scouting as an outdoor program for boys with ideals built in. It was a way of thinking, a way of living, a way of doing things.

Assistant CM: Today, Scouting is still a program filled with fun and adventure. Men who earned badges as Scouts have served on the Supreme Court, in the United States House of Representatives, and in the United States Senate. President John F. Kennedy was the first president who had been a Boy Scout. President Gerald Ford was an Eagle Scout. Many of our astronauts were Scouts. More and more men, trained as Scouts, are taking their places in today’s world.

Cubmaster: Please stand with me and in the Pledge of Allegiance and the Scout Oath.

Stars and stripes-Our American Heritage
Santa Clara County Council

Setting: Cub Scout (or Den Chief) stands blindfolded, gagged, and bound before the audience.

Cubmaster: This is an American boy.
- The American Revolution won him freedom. (Cubmaster unbinds him.)
- The Constitution guarantees him free speech. (He removes the gag.)
- A free education gives him the ability to see and to understand. (He removes the blindfold.)
- Let us help Scouting teach him to preserve and enjoy his glorious heritage and to become a good citizen.

Turn off lights, spotlight American Flag, and repeat the Pledge of Allegiance.

I MADE A PROMISE
Santa Clara County Council

Six boys (or 5 and a Leader) are needed for this ceremony. Each should have his part printed on a small card he can conceal in his hand or he should memorize his part.

Cub #1: I made a promise...I said that whatever I did I would do the best I could.

Cub #2: I made a promise...to serve my God and my country the best I could.

Cub #3: I made a promise...to help other people at all times the best I could.

Cub #4: I made a promise...to obey the Scout Oath and Law the best I could.

Cub #5: I have done my best, and I will do my best because I am the best...I am a Cub Scout.

Cub #6: Will everyone now join us in repeating the Scout Oath.

Heroes All Around Opening
Santa Clara County Council

The past few years have changed America in many ways. One of the most obvious to us now is the fact that we now know heroes are all around us. They are the men and women that run towards danger and disaster when everyone else is running away. They are the ones who risk life and limb to rush to our aid when we dial 911. They are the ones who train year after year to fight for our freedom at anytime and anywhere.

Would everyone who has served in the military or reserves please stand. Would everyone is now or ever has work as a law enforcement officer or a fireman or as an EMT or paramedic please stand also.

Look around, let us all now stand and salute these real American heroes.

Please join in the Pledge of Allegiance.

STEAM: Everyone makes high pitched Sssss sound

ASLEEP: Everyone snores

If you like HORSES, you would have enjoyed living back in the 1800’s when they had old-fashioned STEAM type FIRE ENGINES pulled by HORSES. One of the FIRE ENGINES was driven by the greatest hero ever, CLANCY! Yes, Sir! CLANCY was a real hero. Every day when there was no fire, he would take the HORSES out for exercise, trotting them gently up and down the streets. If there were children along the way, CLANCY would always stop and let them pet the HORSES.

Sometimes the alarms were in the daytime, but sometimes they were at night. When the alarm sounded at night, one man would YELL up to the firemen above, and the men would run to the FIRE ENGINE where the STEAM was started up, and away they would go to the fire, clanging the BELL, with CLANCY driving the HORSES.
One night most of the men were in bed and the others were playing checkers when the alarm sounded. Where was the fire? At the mayor's big two-story house! The YELL was given and quick as a flash the firemen were up and on their way. CLANCY stopped the HORSES and YELLED.

"Keep the STEAM up men." They started the fire HOSE and began to squirt water on the fire. CLANCY strained to see upstairs where the mayor's wife was trapped. Flames were everywhere! CLANCY YELLED, "You'll have to jump!" The mayor's wife was afraid, so CLANCY threw her a rope and she came right down into the middle of the net.

The firemen kept fighting the fire. They got the HOSE on it and kept up the STEAM in the FIRE ENGINE. Before long, the fire was out, so they turned off the HOSE, got back on the FIRE ENGINE and went back to the fire house, clanging the BELL. To CLANCY and the other firemen, it was all in a day's work. The tired firemen went back upstairs and soon were sound ASLEEP.

Smokey Bear (A true story)
Santa Clara County Council
Divide the audience into six groups. Assign each group their words for the story. Each time their word is mentioned in the story, the assigned group enthusiastically says the designated sound words. Practice as you make assignments and have a practice session before starting the story.

- Big Tree - I am so big!
- Middle-Sized Tree - See my pretty leaves
- Baby Tree - I'm just a bush
- Camper - I love this beautiful forest
- Fire - Crackle, crackle
- Smokey - Only you can prevent forest fires
- Babbling Brook - Assign one person, they get up and run through the group, babbling

The distribution of the words in this story is not close to even. There are FIRE appears 8 times, Middle Sized Tree and Camper twice.

One upon a time in a beautiful lush green forest, there stood three trees, the BIG TREE, the MIDDLE-SIZED TREE and the BABY TREE. A BABBLING BROOK coursed its way through the forest. A CAMPER made a FIRE for his breakfast without clearing the area for 10 feet and then went for a hike without making sure the FIRE was dead out. The FIRE threw some sparks into some dried grass. It started smoldering. The BABBLING BROOK was not close enough to put out the sparks. In a short time, the dry forest was ablaze. The animals heard the sounds of the FIRE, smelled the smoke, and tried to flee. A bear cub couldn't see where his mother had gone so he did what she had taught him when there was danger. He climbed the BIG TREE. The FIRE roared by. It burned up the BABY TREE and MIDDLE-SIZED TREE. It singed the BIG TREE with the bear cub clinging to the top. After the FIRE, a ranger found the bear cub still in the top of the BIG TREE and got him down. He was singed and scared. The ranger healed his burns and raised him. He called him SMOKEY. He became the symbol to remind CAMPERS and hikers to be careful with FIRE and protect the BIG TREES, the MIDDLE-SIZED TREES and the BABY TREES so we can enjoy the forest with the BABBLING BROOKS running through them. Remember, "Only you can prevent forest FIREs!" the one who says that is SMOKEY Bear.

LEFT, RIGHT, WRIGHT
Santa Clara County Council

Divide the audience into LEFT and RIGHT and have them stand up and sit down when they heard their word. You could also divide the audience into LEFT, RIGHT and WRIGHT.

Johnny WRIGHT was very excited as he talked to his parents. "I want to become a Cub Scout," he said. "I am the only boy LEFT in the neighborhood that isn't one. Peter invited me to his Blue & Gold banquet tonight to see if scouting is RIGHT for me. Can we go?"

Mr. WRIGHT called Peter's dad to get directions. When he got off the phone he told everyone, "It's at First Baptist Church. We go south on 125, take a LEFT on Cherry St. then our first LEFT into the parking lot...let's go! Johnny ran RIGHT out and got into the car. At the church they went in and had a great time. The Cub Scouts got great awards, put on skits, sang songs and had a ball. The Cubmaster came over and talked to Johnny. "Why do you want to be a Cub Scout." Because at school all the kids talk about the fun they have here, and I feel LEFT out, and my friends LEFT his Cub Scout cap at my house, right on my desk so I tried it on, I look cool in it." Johnny replied. One of the leaders looked at Johnny's parents. "Would you like to help out? It's fun and rewarding". Mr. WRIGHT looked at Mrs. WRIGHT they both fidgeted nervously..."We thought parents brought their boys, then LEFT. We didn't know we had to help." "Oh, you don't have to" explained one of the leaders, "but if no one is willing to give of their time, soon there will be no scouting LEFT. The more parents that help...the less work for us all. You could be den leaders and help boys to stay on the RIGHT track, or you could be on the committee and attend a meeting once a month to help make the RIGHT decisions for our Pack. There are many positions with different levels of time commitment, I'm sure we could find one that's just..."
RIGHT for you…I hope I haven't LEFT out any information…so, would you like to help?"
RIGHT on, exclaimed Johnny's folks. Johnny just beamed. He knew he had made the RIGHT decision by coming to the Blue & Gold.

ADVANCEMENT CEREMONIES

Bobcat Badge Ceremony
Sam Houston Area Council

Setting – 7 Webelos Scouts (WS), all Scouts earning the Bobcat badge; Cubmaster (CM), den leaders (DL).

Scene – Cubmaster invites the Scouts earning their Bobcat badges to stand in front of the group with their parents behind them. Webelos Scouts are standing to the side of the group.

CM: Den leaders, please step forward. For what purpose do these Scouts stand before us tonight?
DL #1: Akela, these Scouts are ready to receive their Bobcat rank.

CM: What leads you to believe they are worthy of this honor?
DL #2: They have completed the requirements for the Bobcat rank by learning the Scout Law, the Scout Oath, the Salute, the Handshake, and the Cub Scout Motto.

CM: Are they ready to show their brothers, the Webelos Scouts?

NOTE: Retesting is not allowed. Once the boy's book is signed he is done. So they can show the Webelos what they have learned. But they cannot be tested by anyone else once the book is signed. The Webelos should be prepped that they are to help if a Bobcat forgets something. They are NOT to criticize. Also, the requirement is to learn the Oath and Law as best as they can and be able to say it, "with help if needed." Rote memorization is not even hinted at in the requirement.

DL #2: Yes, they are.

Den leaders return to previous spot.

WS #1: Please, show us the Cub Scout Sign. (Hold the sign until the Cubmaster inspects all the candidates and then returns to the audience and says, “Very Good!”)

WS #2: Please, repeat the Scout Oath (or Promise) with me. Cub Scout Sign! (Raise the sign and say the Promise with the candidates. Then say) Good job!

WS #3: Please, show us the Cub Scout Salute. (Hold the salute as the Cubmaster inspects each candidate. Then say) Two. Well done!

WS #4: Please, repeat the Scout Law with me. Cub Scout Sign! (Raise the sign and say the Law with the candidates. Then say) Good job!

WS #5: Please, show us the Cub Scout Handshake. (Several of the Webelos Scouts perform the handshake with various candidates in the line and return. Say) Well done!

WS #6: What is the Cub Scout Motto? (The candidates say the Motto.) Ok, now let’s hear it with a little spirit! (Candidates say the Motto again.) Great – now louder! (The Bobcats yell the Motto. Then say loudly) That was great!

CM: Webelos Scouts, did they do their best?

WS #1: Yes, they did, Akela.

CM: Then these Scouts are ready to receive their Bobcats badges and to begin work on their next rank?

WS #3: I agree, they have all performed well and are ready, Akela.

CM: Thank you Webelos Scouts. You may be seated.

CM: Congratulations Scouts on completing the rank of Bobcat and showing what you have learned. I’m now going to give you your rank award to your parents to present to you. They have the honor of the presentation as they have done more to help you than I have. The Bobcat badge acknowledges your hard work. Make sure you thank your parents for helping you on this journey. They will journey with you on your adventure through Cub Scouts!
Salute to our Heroes Advancement Ceremony
_Sam Houston Area Council_

Materials – “Medals of Honor” made from construction paper and attached to loops of crepe streamer to be hung around the Cub Scouts’ necks. Label the medals “HERO.”

_Cubmaster:_ Often we hear of professional athletes being called “sports heroes.” That’s a colorful description, but all they are really doing is playing a game to entertain us. Some of these people really are heroes, but that comes from things they do off the playing field to help their communities.

We salute those heroes that are people who are not afraid to do what they believe is right. They are people who want to make things better for others. They are usually prepared and trained to do the job. And they will do their best even if they are afraid because it is important to them to do what is right.

The following Scouts are the heroes that we salute today. They have chosen to work hard and prepare themselves in life by learning Cub Scouting ideals. They are learning to be independent and successful and happen to have a lot of fun along the way. Please join me in congratulating the heroes who have earned their Bobcat rank (call out names of Scouts and their parents, present rank awards, and place medals around the Scouts’ necks. Continue in a similar manner for each additional rank.)

Hear Ye, Hear Ye

Characters: The Cubmaster (CM) will need to have four people help with the awards. The candidates as Mr. (or Miss or Mrs.) Tiger, Wolf, and Bear and Mayor Scout.

_Cubmaster:_ Ladies and gentlemen, we have come here tonight to hear the members of our (town council) express their views. Normally, we would salute these upstanding citizens but tonight they wish to salute our Cub Scouts.

_Introduce Mr. (or Miss or Mrs.) Tiger, Wolf, and Bear and Mayor Scout._

Mr. (or Mrs. Or Miss) Tiger: I enjoy talking with the youngest citizens of our fair city. It is great that we can provide so many places for them to go on their Adventures. These Tiger Cubs have earned awards for doing just that – completing Adventures. And I salute you. Would these Tiger Cubs and their Adult Partners please come forward and receive their awards. (Call out boys’ names that are receiving their Tiger badges. The Cubmaster assists in presenting the awards to the parents to present to the Tigers.). After presentation CM leads a cheer.

Mr. (or Mrs. Or Miss) Wolf: I would like to talk to the next group of young people about our fair city, to say we need to improve on our quality of life. We have Cub Scouts present who have completed 7 Adventures to improve both their mind and body and their religious beliefs. I salute you for a job well done. Would these Cub Scouts and their parents please come forward and receive their awards. (Call out boys’ names that are getting their Wolf Badge. The Cubmaster assists in presenting the awards to the parents to present to the Wolfs.). After presentation CM leads a cheer.

Mr. (or Mrs. Or Miss) Bear: I would like to address the middle-aged group of your fair Pack. You have been working for some time and have achieved much. (Call out boys' names that are getting their Bear and arrow points. The Cubmaster assists in presenting the awards to the parents to present to the Bears.). After presentation CM leads a cheer.

Mayor Scout: I would like to talk to the old timers of this our golden town. You have each given unselfishly of yourselves and for your loyal support all these years I have a special award that is called the Webelos Badge. Webelos stands for We’ll Be Loyal Scouts and I salute you for your continued loyalty to Scouting. Pretty soon you will be moving up to Boy Scouting and I know you will be just as loyal there. Would these Webelos Scouts and their parents please come forward and receive their awards. (Call out boys' names that have completed Adventures and/or earned their Webelos Badges. The Cubmaster assists in presenting the awards to the parents to present to the Webelos.). After presentation CM leads a cheer.

_Cubmaster:_ As sponsor for these campaign speeches I would like to add my personal salute and many thanks for jobs well done.
Badges of Cloth
Greater St. Louis Area Council
This will make a great start to your first advancement ceremony. Although no awards are made during this it does a good job of explaining the advancement program.
You will need six cards each in the shape of a badge, with one letter of the word BADGE on each card, the explanation for each letter on the reverse side.

Cub # 1:  B: stands for badges given today. What is a badge? A scrap of colored material is not nearly so important as the job that was done to earn it.

Cub # 2:  A: stands for Akela. Your family and leaders who have helped you earn your badge.

Cub # 3:  D: stands for Deeds. Good deeds to be done now and in the future for family, friends, and the community. Good deeds done with the knowledge and skills acquired through the badges.

Cub # 4:  G: stands for Growth. The Pack helps the Cub Scout grow.

Cub # 5:  E: stands for Eagerness and Energy. Both are necessary to earn badges. Badges do not come easily and they should not or their value would be small. Badges present challenges, difficulties, and satisfaction in accomplishment.

Cub # 6:  S: stands for Service. Service to others is one of our aims in life. Our badges help up to bring service to others.

LEADER RECOGNITION
Have I told you lately how much I appreciate all that you do in the Cub Program?
Chris Reisel, Former Editor of Baloo’s Bugle
When was the last time you told another scout volunteer the above statement. Have you said thank you for all their help and for volunteering to work in our program? Just two words-----‘thank you’ They are so simple and yet not said enough. We mean to say it, we want to say it, and yet somehow, we manage to forget until it is too late. Something came up, you got distracted and the words never got said. Let me tell you now----ITS NOT TOO LATE!
“I want to tell you how much I appreciate what you have done to help the program; THANK YOU!”

Because You Said Yes
Sam Houston Area Council
Because you said yes,
★ A young man will feel the pride of being someone special as he carefully puts on his uniform for the very first time
★ A young man can move to a new town and have "instant friendships" with Scouts he might never have met
★ Parents will experience that special pride when they listen to their son say the Cub Scout Promise for the first time
★ Bright eyes will become a little brighter with excitement as the kindling finally catches on the first campfire
★ The community, and the world will be richer because a young man has learned the importance of caring for his environment, and the warm feeling that comes from giving service to someone less fortunate than himself
★ A young man will contact the Boy Scouts one day and say "I had so much fun when I was a Cub Scout, I'd like to try being a leader"
And the circle will continue… because you said yes!

Materials – play gloves or mittens (stuffed), OR latex gloves, OR outline of Scout’s hand on cardstock, mounted on a display with the following sentiments –
For Your Helping Hands
Cubmaster – This month there have been some remarkable parents/leaders who have lent their hands at some of our projects. I’d like to call them forward now and present them with the helping hands award. (Call adults forward and present hands.)

Alice, Golden Empire Council

Down at the Veteran's hospital, a trio of old timers ran out of tales of their own heroic exploits and started bragging about their ancestors. "My great grandfather, at age 13," one declared proudly, "was a drummer boy at Shiloh."

"Mine," boasted another, "went down with Custer at the Battle of Little Big Horn."

"I'm the only soldier in my family," confessed vet number three, "but if my great grandfather was living today he'd be the most famous man in the world."

"What'd he do?" his friends wanted to know.

"Nothing much. But he would be 165 years old."

Recipe for a Great Cub Scout Den
Sam Houston Area Council

Setting – 3 to 10 Scouts. One Scout “reads” from a cook book; one Scout “stirs” the pot, and the other Scouts add the “ingredients.”

Props - Cover old cans or boxes or plastic containers with paper and label. Fill each can with some streamers so it looks like it’s spilling out when the Scout adds the “ingredient.”

Scene – Scouts are standing around a table with a large pot and the “ingredients” on top of the table.

Cub #1: (stands by the pot and stirs slowly as each ingredient is added)

Cub #2: (reads from the cook book) Here is a recipe for a great Cub Scout den. Hey guys, do we have everything? (He looks around as the other Cubs nod their heads.)

Cub #2: First we need three cups of enthusiasm.
Cub #3: Here it is (pours it in).

Cub #2: Next comes two cups of laughter.
Cub #4: I have that! (pours it in)

Cub #2: Two cups of courtesy are next.
Cub #5: I think this is the courtesy (pours it in).

Cub #2: Now, two cups of helpfulness.
Cub #6: I brought that (pours it in).

Cub #2: Next we need two adults to help.
Cub #7: I found two real good ones! (pours it in)

Cub #1: This is really looking good (peers inside the pot).

Cub #2: We need one cup of ability to follow instructions.
Cub #8: I brought that (pours it in).

Cub #2: Now we need one gallon of patience.
Cub #9: I had to look a long time for that, but I finally found it! (pours it in)

Cub #2: Last we need four cups of friendship.
Cub #10: I got that, and I added a little more than the recipe needed (pours it in).

Cub #2: Well that’s it. Now we need to mix it all together and store it somewhere safe so we can bring some back to every den meeting!

Narrator: We are about to instruct you in the method of making a Cub Scout. To complete this project, you will need one small eager boy, two interested parents, one patient den leader, and one courageous Cubmaster.

(Each character enters as his name is spoken. The boy wears his uniform under a large loose-fitting shirt and climbs up on the table. Others don surgical masks. As the narrator continues, the operation proceeds, with the Cubmaster acting as doctor. The den leader and parents hand him the things to be put in and take the things removed. When the boy is hidden under a sheet, he removes his shirt.)

Narrator: Cover him with fun and good times (Hold up posters labeled “FUN” and “GOOD TIMES” and cover boy)

Narrator: We use laughing gas for anesthetic. (Use a tire pump labeled “Laughing Gas.”)

Narrator: Take out hate and put in “Love.” (Hate - lump of paper, so labeled. Love - big paper heart, labeled).

Narrator: Take out selfishness, put in cooperation. (Sign “I,” sign “WE”)

Narrator: Take out idle hands, put in busy fingers. (Idle - empty rubber gloves. Busy - glove full of flour.)

Narrator: Take out laziness, put in ambition. (Laziness - rag; Ambition -blown up balloon.)

Narrator: After this pleasant operation, we have a “Cub Scout.”

(Remove the sheet. Boy, in uniform, stands up and gives the Cub Scout sign.)

Blue and Gold Spirit

Sam Houston Area Council

Setting – 7 Scouts. One (Cub #1) is dressed as Lord Baden-Powell (or a den leader, or other Scout leader). Props for the items needed as noted below.

Scene – Lord Baden-Powell stands in front and the Scouts enter one at a time as they are described.

Cub #1: I represent the spirit of Lord Baden-Powell, the founder of Boy Scouting. I am also the spirit of Boy Scouting, past and present. Here is our future – the Cub Scouts of America.

(Cub #2 enters in complete uniform.)

Cub #1: The two colors of the Cub Scout uniform have special meaning. Blue stands for truth and loyalty. Gold stands for good cheer and happiness.

(Cub #3 enters with Wolf book and Kipling’s Jungle Book.)

Cub #1: Early Cub Scout ceremonies were based on Kipling’s Jungle Tales. When Cub Scouting was organized in America in 1930, Native American themes were used.

(Cub #4 enters with a craft project made from wood.)

Cub #1: Cub Scouting means fun. We have lots of fun. Most Scouts like making things—really good projects—things they can play with that usually follow a monthly theme.

(Cub #5 enters carrying a collection from nature.)

Cub #1: Cub Scouts like to go on hikes and collect things for their nature collections. They like the outdoors.

(Cub #6 enters, carrying a spatula and a bowl.)

Cub #1: Most Cub Scouts like to go on picnics. AND, it’s even more fun when they get to cook their own food.

(Cub #7 enters, carrying the American flag.)

Cub #1: Cub Scouts are proud to be Americans. They are proud of their flag. They are also very proud of their pack flag, because it reminds them they are part of 100 years of Scouting. They are part of both America and the Cub Scouts.

(Pause)

Cub #1: Yes, I represent the past and the present. These young Cub Scouts now are the men of the future. They will be the preservers of our American heritage.

Harvest Celebration
Santa Clara County Council

Boys are standing around talking. They can be attired in Colonial costumes.

Cub #1: We sure had a great time at the Harvest Celebration. When my Dad said we would have a big party I didn’t know it would last for 3 days.

Cub #2: Yea! We invited 92 Indians, plus all our families. We helped our Moms cook for days. It was fun to play games, have shooting contests and relays during the celebration.

Cub #3: I liked the food we cooked, boiled eel, lobster, roasted pigeon, stuffed cod, journey cakes, corn meal bread with nuts and succotash.

Cub #4: The Indians brought food too, turkeys, pumpkins, sweet potatoes, cranberry sauce. And, they brought deer meat, too.

Cub #5: I liked the popcorn the best...I never ate popcorn before. I heard my Dad say Governor Bradford has decided to have a celebration again next year, in 1622. He wants to call it Thanksgiving Celebration!

One Drop Of Blue Closing Ceremony
Great Salt Lake Council

Equipment: One clear gallon glass jar, full of water and blue food coloring.

✓ The Cubmaster drops one drop of blue food coloring into the gallon of water.

✓ Watch as one drop of blue becomes a larger and larger circle until it becomes so diluted that it is barely visible. (Hint - Practice and keep your water volume such that a tinge of blue remains)

Cubmaster says:

✓ The one little drop of blue did its best and succeeded in filling the whole big jar.

✓ In the same way, one Cub Scout (in blue) can also influence all those around him by his actions and words.
Living Circle Ceremony
Great Salt Lake Council

I remember learning this ceremony at my first Den Meeting at Mrs. Kneale’s house in September 1957. We still teach it to our dens. CD

Based on an Indian custom, the living circle may be used alone or as a part of another ceremony. It reminds a Cub Scout of the fine friendships he is making in Cub Scouting.

Hold out your left hand—palm down, and thumb out.

Hold the thumb of the boy on your left and form a connected circle.

Then say the following as a football team may do after a time out or entering the filed at start of the game.

A Scout is Loyal

A Scout is loyal to those to whom loyalty is due. When we think of being loyal, we think of standing by our country, and our state. We are loyal to our church and our family. We are loyal to our school.

When we join Cub Scouts, we pledge our loyalty to our Pack and Den. In all Scouting, the Scout Law and Scout Oath guide the Scouts to help the unit (Pack or troop) go and the unit (Pack or Troop) Pack helps the Cub Scout grow.

That’s the key with loyalty. It’s not a one-way street. Your Den and Pack are only as good as you make them.

You get out of Scouts what you put in. You give loyalty to those to whom loyalty is due, and they will return loyalty to you.

A Scout is Loyal

Scouts, what’s the second point of the Scout Law? That's right, "A Scout is loyal." Our Scout handbook explains that a Scout is loyal to his family, Scout leaders, friends, school and nation.

I’m going to add one more thing to that list - a Scout is loyal to his team. The team might be his patrol or sports team.

Your patrol or soccer team can’t be as good as it should be if you goof off a lot or constantly complain about your teammates or your patrol leader or coach. A winning patrol and a winning team, must have a winning attitude. That means that every member must be willing to do his part and not spend time griping because the patrol's plans or the game are not going his way.

That doesn't mean that you have to be close friends with everybody in your patrol or team or even like all of them. But it means that when you join, you commit... you to the success of the patrol or the team and pledge to give it your best effort.

In Scouting and sports, it's teamwork that makes winners. So whenever you're with your patrol or sports team, remember, "A Scout is loyal".

Scoutmaster Minute - Loyalty

http://voluntoldscouter.blogspot.com/

Two famous generals of the Civil War were Ulysses S. Grant and William T. Sherman. Grant, though the younger of the two, and junior to him at West Point, was Sherman’s Commander. As general of the Union Army, Grant commanded several other generals, but he knew that he could trust Sherman with the most difficult tasks. While some Generals needed line-by-line instructions, Sherman only needed to know the objective. Grant could trust him with the details of getting the job done. Grant knew that the only thing to prevent Sherman’s completing the task was a musket ball with Sherman’s name on it.

That musket ball didn’t exist. Sherman finished his difficult and unpopular task, and Grant accepted Gen Robert E. Lee's surrender at Appomattox Court House in April of 1865, ending the Civil War. These two men remained loyal to each other throughout their lives:

“The friend in my adversity I shall always cherish most. I can better trust those who helped to relieve the gloom of my dark hours than those who are so ready to enjoy with me the sunshine of my prosperity.” – US Grant

Loyalty is a noble characteristic. As you get older, you will confront some serious choices. When you are faced with a difficult choice, ask yourself, “How will this choice demonstrate my loyalty to my friends, my family, my nation, my Church and my God?” Let it be said of you that you chose to be loyal, like Generals Grant, Sherman and Moroni.

Cub Scout Benediction

And now may the Great Master of all Cub Scouts Guide and guard our footsteps
For today, for tomorrow,
And for all the tomorrows to come.

The Circle of Life

Sam Houston Area Council

Setting – 4 Scouts holding posters from the Circle of Life opening ceremony

Scene – darkened room if possible, as the Cubmaster speaks

We must stand together – with these four circles. They are powerful forces in our lives, and yet without them, we are unable to sustain life. We must harness the strength and the energy these forces provide for peace in our world. We must find the spiritual power that enables the forces and use it to intensify our own struggle for peace. Each of us carries an energy, and combined with the energies of our friends, our family, our neighbors, our world, we can become one body and one heart striving for peace. And we must continue this path as the sun and the moon and the winds and the earth continue in their paths in the great circle of life.

THE AMERICAN’S CREED

Santa Clara County Council

I believe in the United States of America as a Government of the people, by the people, for the people; whose just powers are derived from the consent of the governed; a democracy in a republic; a sovereign Nation of many sovereign States; a perfect Union, one and inseparable; established upon those principles of freedom, equality, Justice and humanity for which American patriots sacrificed their lives and fortunes. I, therefore; believe it is my duty to my country to love it; respect its flag; and to defend it against all enemies.
GIVE THEM THE CUB SCOUT SALUTE !!!

Great Salt Lake Council

We will find many heroes within the community this month. Some of them will be the adults that we know. Some of them will be Cub Scouts or even the Boy Scouts. We will search throughout the neighborhood to find someone that would be interested in coming to share some of the things that helped them determine their own destiny. We will also look at our young friends that might be the future leaders of tomorrow, those that show leadership qualities that will put them in positions throughout their lives to become the president of a company or even the United States.

We have highlighted some of the heroes that we find in our neighborhood. Our policeman, the firefighters that risk their lives every time they suit up. The mail man is also trained to watch out for the emergencies that might come his way while delivering the mail. The neighbor that would open his door to a young child that might need some help out on the street could be a hero also. We also will be highlighting the women that will be in the lives of the Cub Scouts. They would be the den leaders and perhaps the Cubmaster. Then there is the one special person that is in most every boy’s life, his mother.

We are using the cardboard stand-ups and placing a familiar face by enlarging the photo and attaching it in place of the original. Now we have created the “Super Hero” that we want to present. It, of course, could be any one of many people in your area that you have noticed a silent act of heroism that has not been mentioned before. There are many people that just go about their business daily that often respond at a moment’s notice to help out someone in distress.

We often read in the “Boy’s Life” magazine about the young men that have been prepared in a time of need when the call for help arises and what they have done to save a life. We hope that you will be able to search out some of these people and highlight them for the month.

WE GIVE THEM THE CUB SCOUT SALUTE !!!

A Boy
Santa Clara County Council

✓ He is a person who is going to carry on what you have started. He is to sit right where you are sitting, and attend, when you are gone, to those things you think are so important.

✓ You may adopt all the policies you please, but how they will be carried out depends on him. Even if you have leagues and treaties, he will have to manage them.

✓ He will assume control of our cities, states and nation. He is going to move in and take over your churches, schools, universities, and nation.

✓ All your work is going to be judged and praised or condemned by him. Your reputation and your future are in his hands.

✓ All your work is for him; and the fate of the nation and of humanity lies in his hands. It is well that we pay him some attention.

GAMES

Salute to Fitness
Sam Houston Area Council

Set up an obstacle course for the Scouts to move through. Include stations where they must stop and do 5-10 pushups, 10-15 jumping jacks, 10-20 sit ups, and 10-15 toe touches as they move through the course. The Scouts move from one station to the next by using “animal” walks such as a duck walking, a bear walking, a crab walking, a turtle crawling, etc…

Fire, Police, Ambulance Game
Greater St. Louis Area Council

Three corners of the room are named “Fire Station”, “Police Station”, and “Ambulance”. The leader calls out a situation in which a boy might find himself and the Cub Scouts have to run to the correct “corner”

The last one home loses a point for his team.

Suggested situations:
1. Smoke is seen coming from under the door of a house. (Fire Station.)
2. Your window cleaner falls from a ladder while cleaning the upstairs bedroom window (Ambulance.)
3. When out fishing you spot some bushes on fire. (Fire Station.)
4. You see some older boys cutting the wire to a telephone in a call box (Police Station)
5. Your friend falls from his bicycle while you are out for a ride. (Ambulance.)
6. You find a transistor radio pavement. (Police Station.)
7. Your bicycle is stolen. (Police Station.)
8. An older person who has rescued a small, unconscious girl from a river asks you to telephone for help (Ambulance)

Help Lead me Home
Santa Clara County Council

Supplies: Pencil and paper
- Ask each of the boys to think about the walk from the den meeting place to their home.
- Have them count the number of streetlights, bridges, trees, cross walks, fire hydrant, police stations, fire stations and neighbors houses they pass.
- Have them write down as many as they can remember.

Scout Sign Puzzle
Sam Houston Area Council

- Give each Scout a 3x5 card and instruct him to draw one of these features –
  - Scout sign,
  - hair on top of a head,
  - a pair of eyes,
  - two ears,
  - a nose,
  - a mouth,
  - a body with one arm down and one arm reaching up,
  - legs and feet/shoes.

- Place the cards upside down on a table and shuffle them.
- Have each Scout take a turn turning up the cards and putting the Scout together IN THE RIGHT ORDER (start with the Scout sign, then the top of the head, then the eyes, ears, nose, mouth, body, and finally the legs).
- If a Scout turns up a card out of order, it is the next persons’ turn.
- Turn the cards back over for the next Scout.
- The first Scout to turn over the cards in the right order wins.

Mixed Cubs
Great Salt Lake Council

(Musical chairs without music)

- You need enough chairs for everyone in the group except for one person.
- Put the chairs in a circle.
- Then go around the circle and tell each person a Scout name like “Tiger, Wolf, Bear, Webelos.”
- The person in the center can then call out one of the names of the Scouts (Tiger, Wolf, Bear, Webelos) or “Mixed Cubs.”
- The object of the game is to always have a chair.
- When the person in the center calls out a Scout name (e.g. Bear), those people who are representing Bears must get up and find a new chair, and the person in the middle finds a chair.
- Whoever is left without a chair is the new “caller.”
- If “Mixed Cubs” is called, everyone in the game must find a new chair.
- After you are in a new seat, you must make the Cub Scout salute until the new caller shouts out one of the Scout names.
- If you do not make the Cub Scout salute and the caller catches you, then you lose your seat and have to switch places with the caller.
Cub Scout Salute Relay Race

Great Salt Lake Council

✓ For this relay race, divide the boys up into teams. You can have however many teams you want, but 2 to 4 is probably best.
✓ Everyone starts at certain point, and each team is lined up in their own line.
✓ At the go signal, the first person runs to the first station area, makes the Cub Scout sign and repeats the Scout Oath. You may want to have a copy of the Oath posted there for those who do not know it.

On my honor, I will do my best.
To do my duty to God and my country and to obey the Scout Law;
To help other people at all times;
To keep myself physically strong, mentally awake and morally straight.

✓ Then he runs to the next station, gets a licorice rope off the table and ties a square knot. (Show all the boys how to tie square knots before the race begins.)
✓ He keeps his licorice rope with him to eat later.
✓ Then he runs to the last station where an American Flag is posted.
✓ He stops, salutes the flag, and repeats the Pledge of Allegiance.
✓ Then, he turns around and runs back to his team.
✓ When he gets there, he must use the Cub Scout handshake with the next boy in line before that boy can start his turn. The first team (make sure the teams are equal in size or have a boy go twice) to have all the boys finish is the winning team.

Potato Roll

Santa Clara County Council

You could do this during Easter time using Styrofoam shaped Easter eggs. Or at Halloween or Thanksgiving with pumpkins. This is a simple race but since potatoes are not nice smooth balls and refuse to roll in nice straight lines, you will need plenty of wandering room.

- You will need two large potatoes and two sturdy sticks. If you need to play inside, use small potatoes.
- The racers line up on the starting line with the potatoes turned on their sides.
- On signal, the racers use the stick to roll the potatoes to the finish line.
- Younger players may want to use their hands instead of the stick.
- Can also be played as a relay race.

Have the boys make a list of things that can be seen in their town. You might help by making suggestions like, large oak trees on Main Street, bridge, library, county office building, historical marker, and City Park. After the boys have made their list take them on a 30 minute walk around town to see the things they listed.

Raising a Child
Santa Clara County Council

I have seen repeatedly the breakdown of the cost of raising a child, but this is the first time I have seen the rewards listed this way. It's nice, really nice.

The government recently calculated (This article from 2009) the cost of raising a child from birth to age 18 and came up with $160,140 for a middle-income family. Talk about sticker shock! That doesn't even touch college tuition. For those with kids, that figure leads to wild fantasies about all the money we could have banked if not for (insert your child's name here).

For others, that number might confirm the decision to remain childless. But $160,140 isn't so bad if you break it down. It translates into $8,896.66 a year, $741.38 a month, or $171.08 a week. That's a mere $24.44 a day! Just over a dollar an hour.

Still, you might think the best financial advice says don't have children if you want to be "rich." It is just the opposite.

So, What do you get for your $160,140?

✓ Naming rights. First, middle, and last!
✓ Glimpses of God every day.
✓ Giggles under the covers every night.
✓ More love than your heart can hold.
✓ Butterfly kisses and Velcro hugs.
✓ Endless wonder over rocks, ants, clouds, and warm cookies.
✓ A hand to hold, usually covered with jam.
✓ A partner for blowing bubbles, flying kites, building sandcastles, and skipping in the pouring rain.
✓ Someone to laugh yourself silly with no matter what the boss said or how your stocks did that day.
✓ For $160,140, you never have to grow up.
✓ You get to finger-paint, carve pumpkins, play hide-and-seek, catch bugs, and never stop believing in Santa Claus.
✓ You have an excuse to keep reading the Adventures of Piglet and Pooh, watching Saturday cartoons, going to Disney movies, and wishing on stars.
✓ You get to frame rainbows, hearts, and flowers under refrigerator magnets and collect spray painted noodle wreaths for Christmas, hand prints set in clay for Mother's Day, and cards with backward letters for Father's Day.
✓ You get the greatest possible bang for your buck.
✓ You get to be a hero just for retrieving a Frisbee off the garage roof, taking the training wheels off the bike, removing a splinter, filling the wading pool, coaxing a wad of gum out of bangs, and coaching a baseball team that never wins but always gets treated to ice cream regardless.
✓ You get a front row seat to history to witness the first step, first word, first bra, first date, and first time behind the wheel.
✓ You get to be immortal. You get another branch added to your family tree, and if you're lucky, a long list of limbs in your obituary called grandchildren.
✓ You get education in psychology, nursing, criminal justice, communications, and human sexuality that no college can match.
✓ In the eyes of a child, you rank right up there with God. You have all the power to heal a boo-boo, scare away the monsters under the bed, patch a broken heart, police a slumber party, ground them forever, and love them without limits, so one day they will, like you, love without counting the cost.
