HELP WITH THE CUB SCOUT ADVENTURE PLAN MODIFICATIONS

On November 30, 2016, the BSA announced modifications to Adventure requirements in response to feedback from Den Leader feedback. Dens started using the modified requirements as soon as they began their next Adventure.

The BSA has placed PDFs that may be inserted into all Cub Scout Rank handbooks on www.scouting.org/programupdates. The PDFs are formatted to be printed book size. They have, also, sent printed copies to each National Scout Shop. They are available free for the asking by parents and scout leaders. (We at the Wilmington, DE shop have a great supply!! Stop in and say hello and ask for the ones you need.

<https://www.facebook.com/WilmingtonScoutShop>)

The PDFs are at –

Bear Addendum  Webelos/A of L Addendum

The www.usscouts.org Advancement pages have been updated to reflect all the changes.

The Cub Scout Learning Library will not be updated to show the changes. All updates to the Cub Scout Learning Library (www.cubscouts.org) are on hold as BSA assess its digital strategy.

CUB SCOUT SPRING RECRUITMENT

New Birth of Freedom Council

Recruitment should be a year round activity for all units. Whether the recruitment method is an activity such as a pack ice cream social, troop open house, or peer to peer campaign it's important that the door is always open for a boy to join scouting. Primarily, there are two times every year that an extra emphasis is put into recruiting for packs, troops, and crews, during the fall and spring. In the fall packs are participating in the fall round-up and venture crews are hosting first nighters. In the spring Troops actively work with cub packs to bridge over 2nd year Webelos for them to join Boy Scouts.

During May of every year the kindergarten boys are becoming eligible for the first time to join cub scouts and parents of boys for all ages are making decisions on what activities to get involved in for the following school year. It is important that we take advantage of this opportunity and plan a recruiting activity so we can ensure boys have the opportunity to join cub scouts when they are being offered all types of other activities.

Packs should set goals for recruiting a new tiger den and identifying a tiger leader to lead them in the spring so they are ready to go in the fall. As with most packs during the summer, weekly meeting have slowed down along with most pack activities. However, to actively engage your new scouts and leaders the National Summertime Pack Award is a simple and great award recognition program for the new scouts and the entire pack to participate in.

Please take a look at training video on the link below to gather some information on how your pack can have a very successful spring recruitment. This video was put together by the Central Region Commissioner, Lucia Cronin a volunteer that has had some great success with cub scout recruiting.

SPRING RECRUITING

Spring is a great time to recruit new Cub Scouts, especially Tigers!! Five Year Olds are eligible for Lions and Kindergartners are eligible for Tigers after June 1.

The Pack is getting ready for its biggest adventure of the year – CAMP!!! Once a boy goes to camp and has a good time he will be hooked!!

As mentioned below, the key to retention through the summer is PROGRAM –

Does your pack have an active Summertime Program –

If you do – Spring Recruiting will work for you.

There has been discussion in many places lately about Summer Programs. Packs responded that they run two activities per month so no one has to miss out on the award. My local pack runs two activities – one free (pool party, car wash, hike, walk, picnic, fishing derby) and one that has a charge (camp, baseball game (minor league games are best!!), zoo, aquarium, museum). And they encourage Den Leaders to hold a meeting each month to keep the boys focused.

Where can you do your Round Up Night?

- ✓ How about at the Little League Field?? You probably have more than a few parents and boys registered in Cubs and Little League – get permission to set up a booth at a field (near the refreshment stand?) and advertise that you will be there. Show parents how the two work together. Be ready to highlight a few sports-related Adventures to the parents.
- ✓ A Park with a playground in your town? It is spring time boys want to be outside not in a building. Set up some outside activities – volleyball, tin can walkers, stilts, make hot dogs, play games.

What do you need –

Besides all the applications and other usual stuff

- ✓ Pack Tee shirts – Have all your Cubs and leaders in their spiffy pack tee shirts and have shirts available for the new Scouts. Maybe even adjust your registration fee to include a tee shirt for all registrants that night!
- ✓ A calendar of all your summertime activities with complete details, contact names and numbers, and sign up forms. Have it cleared with council that any boys recruited will still be able to go to camp for the early registration fee. (Garden State Council offeres three free days for Spring recruits. Parents need only pay 40% of the fee to get aweek!!)

Why now (Spring)?

- ✓ You are away from the Fall frenzy when everything is starting up
- ✓ Five Year-olds and Kindergarteners are available and not swamped with a million other things yet.
- ✓ Most other organizations are slowing down or suspending for the summer
- ✓ Parents are not running around buying school supplies and signing kids up for other things
- ✓ Families are looking for activities to do together in the summer
- ✓ Summer is the best time to experience the outdoors where Scouting does its best job!
- ✓ You can have everything rolling (especially your new Lion and Tiger Dens!!) when you hold your Fall Join Scouting Night to really wow those who sign up then.

Adapted from the Greater Pittsburgh Council website, <http://www.gpc-bsa.org/>

Key features of a Spring Roundup campaign:

- ✓ Five Year old and Kindergarten boys are invited early to join!
- ✓ Boys going into first grade may become Tiger Cubs anytime after the first day in June.
- ✓ First and second grade boys who were missed in the fall will be invited.
- ✓ National Council has helpful recruiting materials that should be available at every council headquarters

The key to success is, as always, PROGRAM! The council and districts offer great program opportunities like day camp which for many Cub Scouts, is a “mountain top” experience. By recruiting boys in May and June, they will be organized in time to experience Day Camp as well as opportunities for Parent and Son events and Cub Scout Resident Camps.

Of course other program opportunities will be important.

First packs need to:

1. Organize the Lion and Tiger Dens and get them started on their Cub books. The new boys graduating from first to second grade can get caught up with their classmates by working on and earning their Bobcat badge.
2. Provide fun activities such as a baseball game, a picnic or other activity, which are vital to keeping the interests of new boys who join.

Pack Spring Roundup Coordinator Job Description

The Pack leadership appoints and/or recruits an individual to serve as the Pack's Spring Roundup Coordinator. This name should be submitted to the appropriate District personnel.

This person should -

1. Attend a District Unit Coordinators training / orientation (If your district has one)
2. Determine the Packs Spring Rally / Tiger Cub Signup Night.
3. Confirm date and secure permission for School Youth Talk and distribution of School Night flyers.
4. Order appropriate School Rally flyers.
5. Recruit additional leaders and parents as needed to help with the flyer distribution as well as with the actual Rally Night.
6. Check-out what incentive may be available for Spring Recruiting and how to get them.

In going to various council websites to prep this article I found a lot of incentives being offered by councils.

- * One council is offering FREE Handbooks to newly recruited Cub Scouts if the pack qualifies.
- * Many councils are offering free council summer events for new Cub Scouts
- * One council was giving free Tiger Tee Shirts

7. Submit ALL NEW youth applications to your District Executive or the Boy Scout Service Center by a specified date
8. Continue follow-up with potential NEW youth not signed up at the rally night.
9. Promote NEW members and their parents to participate in the various council and district activities to be held over the summer months. Distribute flyer of activities and how they can sign-up to participate.
10. Turn in recognition forms for those Cub Scouts which served as recruiters and brought in a NEW member to join the Cub Scout Pack

Like many other things in life, being Cub Scout leaders can be a joy or a chore. At times, things may look so hard that you may be tempted to say, 'I quit!' Then one of the boys looks up to you with a smile and says he loves Cub Scouting. That will instantly make you happy, and you will think you can go on for the next several years being a Cub Scout leader. Don't give up even when you want to. There are many people who would be happy to support you. For example, look around this room. Persevere through hard times for that smile on the boys' faces.

What are YOU going to do now?

*The best gift for a Cub Scout.....
.....get his parents involved!
The greatest gift you can give your child
..... good self respect!*

ORGANIZING FOR LIONS

From – New Birth of Freedom Council

For those packs that are thinking ahead about participating in the Lion Scouts program, having the right volunteers involved in delivering the Lion Scouts program will be important. Research shows that the most important person for a successful Scouting experience is a good leader. There are two new adult leader positions within the pack that are directly engaged in the delivery of the Lion Scouts program – a Lion Coordinator and a Lion Guide. Where do these positions fit into the current pack structure? What is the Lion Coordinator's job description?

- Is an experienced and successful den leader
- Understands den and pack operations within the overall structure of Cub Scouting
- Demonstrates excellent communication and organization skills (and will remain in at least monthly contact with the Lion dens)
- Participates as needed in the unit's School Night with all new Lions and their parents
- Assists the Lion guide in hosting the first orientation meeting for all the individual Lion dens in their pack
- Serves as a coach and mentor for Lion Guide

THE CHIEF SCOUT EXECUTIVE ON LIONS

What We Know According to a 2014 U.S. Census Bureau report, 57 percent of kids ages 6–17 participate in at least one after-school extracurricular activity. This means that by the time they are eligible for Tigers, more than half of them already are engaged in some type of athletic, artistic or other program.

Often, children become attached to lifelong activities at an early age — that is certainly a goal we would have, as we know the long-term benefits of Scouting involvement include strong asset development in the areas of character and leadership. However, we also know that when youth participate in numerous activities at an early age, and miss joining Scouting, they are unlikely to do so at adolescence.

What will be important to learn in the next few years, if the initial entry point works at the kindergarten-age level, is will this cause losses at a different age, or will the program keep the same retention all the way through to Boy Scouting?

What we learn from the pilot Lion format could also help us assess and create a smoother transition from Webelos into Boy Scouting. Too many parents now see a barrier or obstacle, rather than a smoother transition. You will often hear parents say, “We did Cub Scouting, now we’re not sure if we are going to do Boy Scouts.” We do not have a seamless transition into Boy Scouts for a number of reasons. This pilot test will help us think through some of these issues.

We want to be sure that our Lion program delivers the right mix of character and leadership values and that we set the bar high. The program must be sustainable, we must have the right infrastructure to support it, and it needs to address in a meaningful way the needs of parents who want their kids to join Scouting at an earlier age.

You can rest assured that we will carefully evaluate our progress and keep you apprised of the results. Stay tuned for more.

TRACKING BOYS' PROGRESS IN THE MODIFIED CUB SCOUT ADVENTURE PLAN

Judy and I have found several places on the web where there are aids to use to track boys' progress in the modified Adventure Plan. Judy is placing a more detail in Baloo's Bugle, Part IV – Den Meeting Helps.

☞ The Bobwhite Bather blog site (<https://bobwhiteblather.com/mid-year-cub-scout-program-updates/>) has a discussion of changes.

☺ Cubmaster Tom, responded providing links to documents he formatted to paste into the boys' books for each modified Adventure. See example below:

Tiger Required Adventure: My Tiger Jungle

Complete Requirement 1 plus at least two others.

REQUIREMENT 1. With your parent/guardian or other caring adult (referred to in the handbook as "your adult partner"), go for a walk outside, and pick out two or more sights or sounds of "nature" around you. Discuss with your partner or den.

REQUIREMENT 2. Take a 1-foot hike. Make a list of the living things you find on your 1-foot hike. Discuss these plants or animals with your parent/guardian, other caring adult, or your den.

REQUIREMENT 3. Point out two different kinds of birds that live in your area. With your parent/guardian, other caring adult, or den, find out more about one of these birds.

REQUIREMENT 4. Be helpful to nature by planting a plant, shrub, or tree. Learn more about the needs and growth of the item you've planted.

REQUIREMENT 5. Build and hang a birdhouse.

☺ Bert Bender, Atlanta Area Council, replied, Having finished several deep dives through the requirements changes, I've updated the page at <http://www.southfultonscouting.com/node/3557> to not only show exactly what got changed and what didn't change, but now also add comments intended to be a practical guide to whether you need to look at the new 11/30/16 language, and whether when those might be a useful alternative.

Comments after some Adventures encourage (sometimes plead) that dens avoid the "easy button" approach. Doing the June 1, 2015 handbook elements will often result in better outcomes and experience in Cub Scouting.

☞ Utah National Parks Council's Akelas Council Blogspot has revised paper tracking sheets (<http://akelascouncil.blogspot.com/>) Thanks to Celeste Hunt for creating these.

Celeste says, "Tracking, planning, and recognition are so important in Cub Scouts. This new tracking sheet helps you to be able to keep track of where each boy is at towards the Bear, Adventures, and Cyber Chip requirements. I print 2 copies of the tracker on cardstock for each boy. One for his book and one for my leader binder. I place it next to the trackers for the religious and other awards we are doing. I have tab for every boy with all his trackers. Complete information on each boy in one place. Not every boy is there every week. By doing this, I always know what each boy has done. If the parents ever have questions, I have a place to check, and I can always copy each tracking sheet to show them where their boy is.

ON-LINE TRAINING

On-Line Training for all Cub Scout positions has been available since October 25, 2015

The online training for Den Leaders, Cubmasters, Committee Chairs and members, and Chartered Organization Representatives is totally updated with help from volunteers from around the country. The new training is divided into shorter, more targeted modules so leaders can get the training they need, in the order they want, any time they need it. It is organized around the learning needed prior to the first meeting, in the first 30 days, and to be position-specific trained. This training was developed to be implemented in conjunction with the BSA's new learning management system. Keep an eye on my. Scouting Tools (log in at <https://My.Scouting.org>) for more information.

Go to the BSA Volunteer Training Team Facebook page (Link above) and  Like. Then you automatically receive the latest news!!

If you are having difficulties with the training or system call BSA Member Care at 972-580-2489

A Typical Learning Plan has several parts –

There is no need to complete more than one section at a time. Do what you have time to do.

Here you can see the three parts of the CM Course -

Each of these three parts is broken down into "bite sized" chunks:

Go check it out and get your people trained!!!
