

EAGLE COURT OF HONOR BOOK

Life to Eagle What every Scout, Scouter and Parent should know.

A troop Guide to Eagle Courts of Honor.

A book of ideas, ceremonies and plans.

Version 8
2005

By Ken Spiegel
Troop 80
Farmingville, NY

Dedication

This book is dedicated to all those life scouts who aspire to fly with the Eagles. Beware of the Raven but protect and believe in the sparrow. Now is the time for you to take flight.

To my loving wife Marcia who has put up with me these many years while our son was growing up in scouting and letting me continue as a scouter to assist those who have followed our son.

Yes, I promise that after I complete Version 7 of this book, I will cut the grass, clean the basement and garage, paint the house and put in a shed for the gardening items (and scouting stuff).

{Now I just have to figure out how to make this a service project for my troop.}

To my Eagle Scout Son Brian, You have shown that a true Eagle gives back more to scouting than he receives. Teaching the new boys of our troop the basic skills and showing the adults that a boy run troop is the best way to advance the BSA program has made me proud of you.

To my Daughter Debra, may you get all that you wish for in life and may your up coming marriage present you with a golden road of happiness.

To the staff of Woodbadge NE-III-143 and the Antelope Patrol, my many thanks. What has started out as a simple woodbadge ticket item has blossomed into thousands of scouts making Eagle with the aid of this book.

To the Eagle Scouts that sent me the check for me to obtain the James E. West Fellowship I am forever grateful. It was a true gift that I never expected and I will always be proud to wear my knot. The 26 one issued by Suffolk County Council #404.
